The Muhlenberg County School District is excited to announce the appointment of the principals who will lead Muhlenberg County Middle School beginning next school year. Following a thorough selection process, the district is proud to congratulate Mr. Adam Gish, who will assume the role of Principal overseeing instruction and discipline, and Mr. Jerry Rager, who will serve as the Principal in charge of facilities and school safety.

Mr. Adam Gish, currently the principal of Muhlenberg South Middle, has been selected to lead the middle school in the critical areas of instruction and discipline. With a wealth of experience and a passion for fostering a positive learning environment, Mr. Gish is poised to contribute significantly to the academic success and personal development of the students.

Equally deserving of recognition is Mr. Jerry Rager, who has been appointed as the Principal overseeing facilities and safety. With twenty plus years of working in the middle school setting, he will play a crucial role in providing a nurturing space for educational growth.

On Monday afternoon district administrators met with staff members from both middle schools to share administrative duties of each principal. The decision reflects the district's commitment to promoting leadership that prioritizes student success, fosters a positive school culture, and ensures the overall well-being of the school community.

"We are confident that Mr. Adam Gish and Mr. Jerry Rager will bring exceptional leadership qualities to Muhlenberg County Middle School. Their dedication to educational excellence, coupled with their passion for creating a positive and inclusive school environment, aligns perfectly with our district's mission," said Contessa Orr, Superintendent of Muhlenberg County School District.
