AUTHOR GUIDELINES of SESHISKI:
Southeast Journal of Language and Literary Studies

Each submission should follow the guidelines:

1. Manuscripts Each submission should consist of the following files: (1) Title page; (2) Abstracts and keywords; (3) Manuscript files; (4) Figure files (if any).

   Title Page is covering; the manuscript title and running head; all author names, affiliations, mailing addresses, and e-mail addresses (specify who the corresponding author for the article should be).

   Abstracts and Keywords: Abstracts should be written in 150 to 250 words and submit 3 to 5 keywords that will enable online searches for the manuscript topic.

   The Manuscript Files should consist of: (1) Introduction that covers problem, state of arts, theory and method; (2) Finding and Discussion that formulated into heading and subheadings; (3) Conclusion; (4) References; (5) Appendices (if Any).

2. Manuscripts should be prepared using the APA Style (7th Edition). All pages must be typed, double-spaced. Text must be in 12-point Times Roman. Block quotes should be single-spaced.

3. Begin article text on a new page headed by the full article title.

4. References:

   Basic rules and examples:

   - The reference list should be arranged in alphabetical order according to the authors' last names. If there is more than one work by the same author, order them according to their publication date – oldest to newest (therefore a 2018 publication would appear before a 2019 publication).
   - Book citations generally require the author's name, publication year,work title, publication city, and publisher.

   For single author:

   Pollan, Michael. (2006).The Omnivore's Dilemma: A Natural History of Four Meals. New York: Penguin.

   Two authors:

   Bell, James K., and Adrian A. Cohn. (2006).The Omnivore's Dilemma: A Natural History of Four Meals. New York: Penguin.

For 3 to 10 authors, include all names in bibliography.

Kernis, Michael, David Cornell, C Sun, Adam Berry, Thomas Harlow, and Janeen Bach. (2006). The Omnivore's Dilemma: A Natural History of Four Meals. New York: Penguin.

For more than 10 authors, list the first seven names in the bibliography followed by et al.

- Scholarly Journal (paginated by issue):

Bagchi, Alaknanda. (1996).Conflicting Nationalisms: The Voice of the Subaltern in Mahasweta Devi's Bashai Tudu." Tulsa Studies in Women's Literature, 15(1): 41–50.
