Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that could be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. No information is applicable to this Item.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Mr. Johnson is co-owner and chief analyzer for Finch, PC, a finance and accounting company for businesses, churches, and non-profit. He spends approximately 40 hours per week on this activity. This service pays him fees or commission that is separate from the adviser fees outlined in Item 5 of the firm's Form ADV Part 2A. This is a conflict of interest because it creates a financial incentive to recommend this service to the firm's clients. However, Mr. Johnson attempts to mitigate any conflicts of interest to the best of his ability by placing the client's interests ahead of his own through his fiduciary duty and by informing clients they are never obligated to purchase recommended services through him.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Mr. Johnson does not receive any additional compensation.

Item 6 – Supervision

Mr. Johnson is the sole principal and Chief Compliance Officer of the firm. As a result, he has no internal supervision placed over him. He is however bound by the firm's Code of Ethics and written policies and procedures. He can be reached at (951) 216-9355.

Item 7 – Requirements for State-Registered Advisers

Arbitration or Civil, Self-Regulatory Organization or Administrative Proceedings

Mr. Johnson has not been the subject of any arbitration, civil, self-regulatory organization or administrative finding.

Bankruptcy History

Mr. Johnson has not been the subject of a bankruptcy petition.
