Pit Crew (pitboss@epimc.org, Brian Wessner):

While the majority of the marching band musician's carry and play their instruments during performances, there are some large, heavy semi-stationary instruments that are part of the field show. They are known collectively as "the Pit". These instruments are moved on and off the field by a crew of volunteers using the beloved "Gator" and its trailer. The volunteer Pit crew also is responsible for the loading and unloading of instruments and equipment onto rental trucks for transport to away football games and competitions.

Bandstand Coordinator (bandstand@epimc.org, Tony Alsleben):

These important people oversee the set-up of the bandstand tents prior to home football games. They arrive at 5:00 PM to help with and oversee parents who assist with the set-up.

Bandstand Volunteers:

You don't have to be wild and crazy but if you are you will fit right in with this crew! From making hot chocolate to selling hoagies, barbeque and sweets they do it all with a smile! The band stand is open for business at all home games!

Cold and Hot Water providers:

A volunteer is needed to bring hot water to the home games to make the hot chocolate with (we supply the thermal containers).

A Volunteer is needed to bring small cold bottled water for all students for all competitions, football games and parades

Uniforms (uniforms@epimc.org, Michelle Sames):

Parents are needed to help distribute uniforms to all the marching band members during Band Camp in August (date to be decided), and in November to collect and inventory uniforms

Bakers/Cooks:

Your name does not have to be Betty Crocker or Martha Stewart to volunteer for this! Simply supply 2 dozen of your favorite goodies individually wrapped (can be store bought) these are sold for $.50 at home football games. We also need bakers to supply goodies for other events such as the January Band Party.

People to make hot foods for the games for resale such as meatball for meatball sandwiches and sausage and peppers, BBQ, and pierogies to name a few.

Donations of water and soda are needed throughout the season as well.

Chaperones:

Must follow EPSD rules regarding clearances, go to here for details.

EPIMC relies on its members to act as chaperones for all marching band activities. This includes home and away games, competitions, parades, band trips and all band social events. Chaperoning responsibilities include general supervision of the students, uniform assistance as needed, general safety and any other duties as deemed necessary by the band director and or staff.
