Yes, especially if convenience matters — North Hill is one of the closest full 18-hole courses to both central Chiang Mai and the airport, marketed as the finest modern city course in the region. 4. Overview

North Hill Golf Club & Resort began life in 2011 as a 9-hole private club called Mezza9 Golf Club, before expanding to a full 18 holes and rebranding as North Hill in November 2015. It’s set in Hang Dong District, just 10–15 minutes from central Chiang Mai and about 15 minutes from Chiang Mai International Airport — making it one of the most convenient full-length courses in the region.

The layout is flat to gently undulating, built within a luxury resort and housing estate, with water hazards coming into play across the course and Doi Suthep mountain providing a scenic backdrop throughout. The club markets itself as the finest modern 18-hole city golf course in Chiang Mai, and its condition and accessibility back that up — this is a course built for a smooth, well-maintained round rather than a rugged mountain test.

For golfers on a tight schedule — landing and wanting a round the same day, or fitting in a course between meetings — North Hill’s location does most of the work.

9. James' Recommendation

"North Hill is the one I book when a group lands and wants to play that same afternoon, or when someone's flying out and wants one last round without cutting it close on time. Fifteen minutes from the airport is hard to beat. It's not the toughest test in Chiang Mai, but it's beautifully kept and Doi Suthep sits right there in the background most of the round — a great first taste of Chiang Mai golf before you head out to the bigger championship courses.”
