

A. Description of Your School Community

Answering the following questions will help you to develop your school library media center school community description.

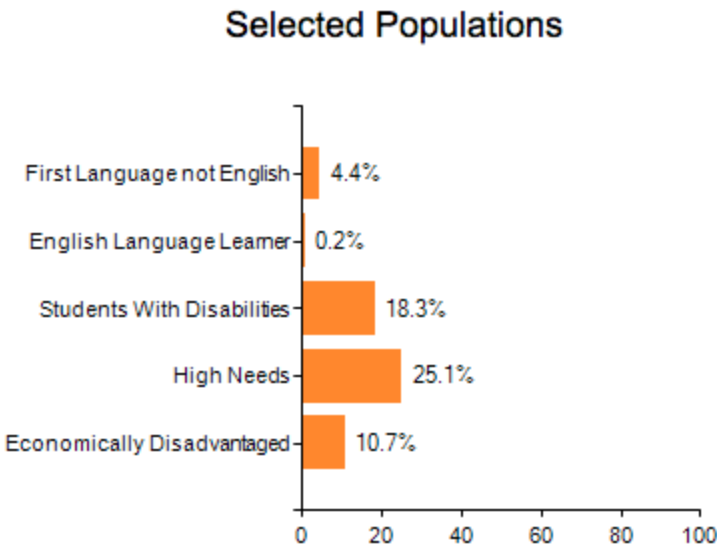

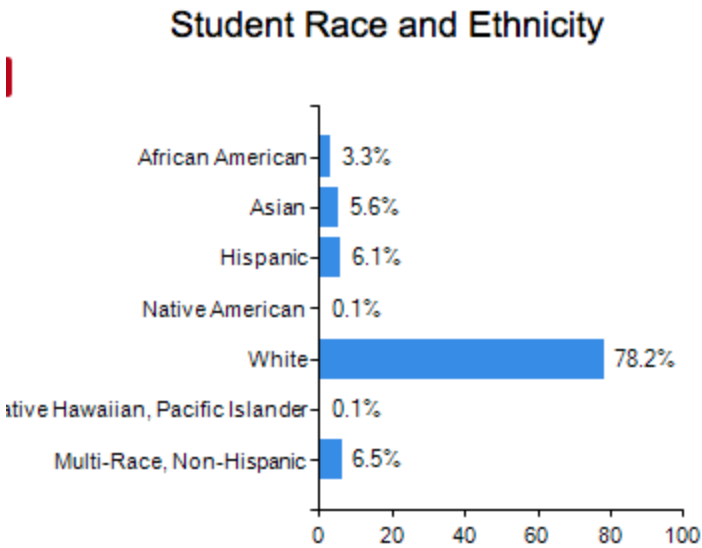

2. How many children attend your school? (AS OF November 2017)

947 students

3. What grade levels does your school serve?

5-8

4. Please describe your community. Include demographics, such as population, location, total area, race and ethnicity, income distribution, educational level of the community, $ per pupil for schools, etc.

5. Any special programs in the school?

6. Any special needs programs? Wilson hosts the ACCESS program for the middle school level. We

7. What makes your school unique? For example, has it a special mission, special populations, etc.?

8. Provide a brief summary of the results of state testing and the impact on the school library program

B. Description of the Library Media Program

1. Briefly describe your library media program as it currently exists.

The Wilson Middle school library media program focuses on teaching and supporting our students and faculty through a combination of fixed and flexible classes. Our goal is to teach students to become independent critical thinkers through project based lessons. All sixth graders take a research skills class, the 5th grade students have a 6 lesson orientation to the library

2. What special programs does your library media center provide?

Wilson Middle School: After School in the library, MCBA book review program, Baseball fever reading program, March Madness- book Mark review program, Coffee house program, Book Swap, author visits,

3. How do students get access to the library media center?

Wilson Middle School: The library is open Monday –Thursday 7:30 -3:00 Friday 7:30-2:15 Students come with their teachers, with passes, during lunch, before and after school. Our website, online databases and catalog allows students access to the resources of the library after hours.

4. How do teachers access the services of the library media center and of the library media specialist?

The librarian communicates with the teachers through email, at department and grade level meetings, and informal face to face meetings as needed. Teachers access the physical library and our services regularly, for meetings, to choose resources and collaborate with the librarian. All e-resources are available to the teachers after hours.

5. Are you working on developing a flexibly accessed library media program? If yes, how?

We currently use that model

6. Is the library media specialist involved in cooperative planning with the classroom teachers?

Yes

7. Is the library media specialist involved in curriculum development with the classroom teachers?

Yes

8. Describe how technology is integrated into the library media program.

Wilson Middle School: The library has 28 Chromebooks, and 15 apple laptops that are shared by the library and independent learners. we have been integrating web 2.0 into the curriculum

9. Describe library media center involvement with the reading program and literacy development in the school.

The library is integral in the the development of reading

10. What is the budget for the school library media center? (Include breakdown by categories).

Wilson: $10,500 annual materials budget. includes: books, databases, magazines, supplies,