

1. What is the name of the Twitter account? Do you know anything about this source already?
 - The name of this twitter account is Lois Beckett. And no, I don't know anything about this situation.

2. What can you learn about the person behind the Twitter account? (Although it's okay to start with something like the Twitter profile, you also need to go outside the post!)
 - As I was scrolling down to find more information I realized that she wants it to be seen, like noticed.

3. What sources did you use to learn about the person behind the Twitter account? How do you know that these are good sources?
 - On twitter I just started clicking on people she's tagged, things she's retweeted. And then Google, I searched her name up to learn more about her. I know these are good sources because she is so serious and passionate about the whole gun thing. She uses Zello for information.

4. Based on your lateral reading, do you think this account is a trustworthy source of information about the school walkouts? Explain.
 - I mean she is vitrified on twitter and getting verified is hard so I feel like somewhat of her information is trustworthy. She has location, real life people in her pictures.
