

Transportation to Canada Con 2023

Individuals and their local chapters (synagogues) are responsible for booking their own flights/trains.

We highly recommend booking your flights as soon as possible, as flight prices are increasing.

Please reach out to your closest local staff member (you do not need to be a member of the synagogue - just reach out to whoever is closest to you):

- Toronto (Beth David, Beit Rayim, Beth Torah, Beth Tzedec, etc) - Sylvie Moscovitz - smoscovitz@uscj.org
 - There will be a chaperone on the following flights - feel free to book your ticket on these flights, or feel free to travel yourself on a different flight:

This is the tentative itinerary for the program - the schedule is subject to change, but the start and end times of the convention are set.

We will be flying through the Vancouver International Airport (YVR).

Participants must arrive in Vancouver on Friday March 10 by 3:00 PM PST. If you require an exception please email Sylvie at smoscovitz@uscj.org.

If you are attending the convention including the leadership day (convention ending on Tuesday March 14), the convention ends at 11:00 AM PST. Please do not book a flight before 1:15 PM PST to leave enough time to get through the airport. If you require an exception please email Sylvie at smoscovitz@uscj.org.

If you are attending the convention without the leadership day (convention ending on Monday March 13), programming ends at 11:30 AM PST. Please do not book a flight before 2:00 PM PST to leave enough time to get through the airport. If you require an exception please email Sylvie at smoscovitz@uscj.org.

There is scholarship money from USY available to offset some of the transportation cost, as well as possible additional funds from your synagogue. If you are interested, please fill out the scholarship request form in the USY Regpacks registration system.
