

GROWING AROUND:
“DOMINO EFFECT”
BY JOHNATHAN “ENTER” ROZANSKI

[This episode starts with a conspiracy board. The atmosphere is dark, similar to the beginning of Space Age Love Song. Niall pops up in front of it.]

Niall: I've finally figured it out! The ultimate conspiracy! Talula's not really in charge of Summerway. (Maniacal laughter) Well maybe she is. It doesn't matter because the Eagleworths are not in control of Americandy! Our prince and princess are controlled by a dark cabal of shadowy figures who manipulate every aspect of our daily lives! Politics, media, last night's baseball game, everything!

[Cut to Niall waving his arms frantically in Melissa, who is incredibly bored.]

Melissa: And what do you call this dark cabal of kids, the Illuminutty?

Niall: That's the thing, it might not even be kids really in charge. They could all be puppets of grown-ups. They might really rule the world!

[Melissa looks very annoyed.]

Melissa: Right, grown-ups really ruling the world.

Niall: You uh... don't believe me, do you?

Melissa: Yeah, it's

Melissa & Niall: The most ridiculous implausible thing that I've ever heard.

Melissa: Mr. Niall, perhaps you'd find a lot more happiness if you spent more time perhaps... making comics than reading them.

[Niall walks out of the room.]

Niall: Yeah, yeah yeah...

[Cut to Niall at the public library with his head down on a pile of books and photos.]

Niall: I am so stupid! What was I thinking? Grown-ups ruling the world?

[Niall hits himself in the head with the book a few times.]

Niall: Their lack of creativity would cause society to stagnate and crumble, their complacency would destroy anything they built, if their lack of energy allowed them to build anything at all. But there... has to be something. Gotta keep reading.

[Cut to outside the library. A carriage that looks like a street organ is being pulled by a bunch of pigs. Kids around look on very confused at this strange thing, as it starts making music and blowing bubbles. The carriage comes to a stop by the library. A girl with very long pigtails and yo-yos for earrings steps out. This is Domino. She pulls out a pocket watch.]

Domino: Just in time for my three o' clock appointment.

[She tosses the clock behind her and the pigs start eating it. Then she walks up the stairs in a flighty manner, humming to herself.]

[Cut to Niall, his face in a book about the "Lock Tess Monster".]

Niall: This is has got to be it! Maybe that's who's hiding the Fountain of Youth!

[Niall puts the book down to see Domino staring at him.]

Domino: So close and yet so far. You really believe in the Lock Tess Monster?

Niall: Gah!

[Niall falls backwards.]

Domino: Shhh, we're in a library.

Niall: Haven't you heard of personal space?

[Domino walks around, taking books off of shelves, and then throwing them onto the ground. All of them are astronomy themed.]

Domino: Hmmm, personal space. I'm not sure I have. Why do you ask, Niall?

Niall: How do... wait, you know my name!

Domino: Yup.

Niall: How... why... do you know my name?

Domino: I mean, I'm bound to come across your name when I'm looking up your location, acquaintances, family, hobbies, favorites, and—

[As Domino goes on and on, Niall looks more and more frightened.]

Niall: But... I've been off the grid. I never opened a Facelook. I don't even have a cell phone!

Domino: Yup, you've been a real challenge, Bhatt. But that's what makes life fun. My name's Domino, by the way.

[Domino starts looking through Niall's conspiracy project.]

Domino: And you should really think about getting a cellphone, in case you break down on your way to Leafy Lake again.

Niall: H-how do you know all of this? About... me?

Domino: You know how there are people controlling the world from inside the shadows? Manipulating world events? Politics, media, and even baseball games?

Niall: Y-yeah.

Domino: Yeah, that's me. I rule the world. From the shadows!

[The light above Domino goes out, giving her a demonic silhouette in the darkness.]

Sir Harold: Sorry, just changing the bulbs.

[The light comes back on.]

Niall: This is crazy. You're crazy!

Domino: Says the kid who believes in the Lock Tess Monster, bigfoot, the chupacabra. Oh that one is real. Forgot. Look, I got a business card and everything!

[Domino takes out a business card. Niall takes it. On it is written "Domino Mü: Ruler of the World," etched onto a domino with seven dots on one side and zero on the other.]

Niall: Moo?

Domino: Mew. Like a cat. Or a lion, I guess.

[Niall drops the card and he runs off.]

Domino: Why do they always run?

[Domino starts skipping off after Niall with a smile.]

Sir Harold: We get some weird kids in here.

[Niall runs down and gets in his car. He turns the key a few times as the car stalls, then it finally goes. He adjusts the rearview window to see Domino in it. She just waves back at him.]

Domino: Yeah ,a locked car door ain't gonna stop me.

[Cut to outside the car, we just hear the noise of the horn as Niall goes crazy inside.]

Domino: You feeling all better?

Niall: No, I'm not feeling any better! Give me one good reason that I shouldn't call the scouts on you.

Domino: Because I'm ruler of the world and what happens to your freedom is entirely dependant on my mood.

[Domino sits forward with a large grin.]

Niall: There is no way that you are ruler of the world.

Domino: Why is that your line? You believed that Sally was an alien. Why can't you believe that I'm ruler of the world.

Niall: Because the "ruler of the world" doesn't just walk up to someone and reveal who she is.

Domino: Actually I think the ruler of the world does whatever she wants. Kinda in the title. Anyway, you might want to start driving.

Niall: Huh?

Domino: Remember how I said your freedom is entirely dependant on my mood?

Niall: Yeah...

Domino: Well, you're boring me.

[Domino takes out a tablet and on it we see the news.]

Harper: And a warrant has been issued for the arrest of one Niall Bhatt who has been accused of kidnapping the mayor!

Niall: I'll just explain myself to the authorities and—

Domino: And how well did that work for you this morning?

[Niall shifts into gear and then he starts driving. Niall barely misses a girl pushing a teddy bear in a carriage. Cut to inside the car]

Niall: This is crazy!

Niall: Why would I do that?

[Domino shrugs and smiles. Niall makes a hard left turn. The car outside turns and up ahead we see a red light with traffic racing through up ahead.]

Niall: Red light, I'm so dead.

Domino: Only if you don't floor it.

Niall: But the light is—

[Domino smiles at him. Niall closes his eyes and stomps down on the gas pedal. The car accelerates. They get closer and closer and closer. The scout cars turn the corner after Niall. Domino puts her feet up and relaxes. They get very close.]

Domino: And green light.

[The light changes color as they barely get through it. Ryker is forced to stop and he bangs his head on the steering wheel.]

Domino: And red light.

[The green light changes to red, and oncoming traffic stops the scouts. A car hits the back of Ryker's.]

Domino: Green light. Green light. Green light.

[Outside the car, every light turns green just as Niall passes underneath them.]

Domino: Take a right here.

[Niall takes another right, going over the curb, knocking over trash barrels. A kid with a kangaroo looks very angry, shouting at him. Then Niall comes from behind and wraps up the kid in the leash as they pass by. Cut to inside the car.]

Domino: And another right.

Niall: We've gone right nine times already!

[Domino takes out a candy cane.]

Domino: Fine, go left then.

[Niall takes a left turn, and ahead of him are scouts with their sirens on. Cut to Niall turning around rapidly, facing the other direction - a drawbridge.]

Domino: I take it back, you are anything but boring.

Niall: Yeah, I think I'm crazy.

Domino: Well crazy, put the pedal to the metal or we're never gonna make it.

Niall: Never going to make what?

[We see the drawbridge opening up in the reflection of Niall's glasses.]

Domino: You make that jump and I'll call the scouts off.

Niall: Yup, I'm crazy.

[Niall puts floors it. He swerves in and out of traffic as he gets towards the bridge. It starts raising. The scouts get out of their vehicles. Two of them get a soda bazooka ready to fire. There's an intersection just before the bridge with speeding traffic.]

Niall: Well, I wasn't planning on dying today.

Domino: People plan being in gruesome car crashes?

[Niall closes his eyes. The soda rocket gets launched. Niall goes through the intersection unscathed. The rocket just barely misses him and they go over the bridge. Inside the car we have a still frame of Niall's glasses slipping, and looking at his eyes filled with fear. After this, he reaches touchdown safely and drives away.]

[Cut to Niall looking at the tablet.]

Harper: And the search for Niall Bhatt has been cleared up, as we have learned that the mayor was not actually kidnapped just in the bathroom for a very long time.

[Niall puts the tablet down. They're on the far side of the lake, looking on at Summerway as sunset encases the town.]

Domino: Sometimes I forget how beautiful the simple things in life are, sunsets like this one.

Niall: You nearly got me killed in a high speed car chase and you're talking about sunsets!?

Domino: Yeah, what about it?

Niall: So this is a typical day for you then?

[Niall nearly falls over the guardrail as he tries to rest on it.]

Domino: Typical... day?

[Niall looks up and rubs his eyes.]

Niall: I suppose the “ruler of the world” don’t have many of those.

[Then Niall comes to a realization. He starts backing away.]

Niall: Wait, you’re... in control of everything?

[Domino turns to him with a smile.]

Domino: Yup.

Niall: That can only mean one thing...

Domino: Hmmmm?

Niall: It means I’ve gotten too close!

[Domino rolls her eyes as Niall makes his way to the car again. As Niall is trying to get his key in the lock, Domino puts her hands on Niall’s shoulder.]

Domino: Too close, you say?

Niall: Y-yeah. You’re going to disappear me! Like everyone else who has gotten too close!

Domino: Do you want to be disappeared?

Niall: No! I don’t want to be disappeared.

[Niall gets the car door opened]

Domino: That’s a relief! It’s so much annoying paperwork, lotta mind control, it’s such a hassle. I hate doin’ it.

[Domino shuts the car door, and Niall can’t pull it open.]

Domino: So I dunno what you’re afraid of.

Niall: Aren’t you worried that I’m going to... tell everyone?

[Domino smiles.]

[Cut to town hall, with Niall running in frantically, Domino right behind him. Melissa looks rather nervous.]

Melissa: Uh, Mr. Niall, sorry about the um... misunderstanding. It's just you were here earlier and after that, we couldn't find Talula and—

Niall: Nevermind that. Remember when I told you about that shadowy cabal from earlier?

Melissa: How could I forget?

Niall: Well, I have the leader right here!

[Niall presents Domino.]

Domino: Well, not so much as a... cabal. Just me, really. Well, I mean there are others but they're weird.

Melissa: Uh-huh.... This girl hasn't asked you for money, has she?

Niall: I know! Show her the business card!

[Domino pulls out her business card. Melissa takes it.]

Melissa: Mr. Niall, it's been a long day for all of us. Perhaps it's best for us to take it easy for the rest of the night and take care of secret societies in the morning.

[Cut to Niall sitting on the steps of town hall.]

Niall: Gah! Even with living proof, they still didn't believe me!

[Domino sits down next to Niall.]

Domino: Some people just don't wanna believe. You can't really make them.

Niall: No, I can make them believe... that I'm not crazy! You just... gotta help me a little bit more.

[Domino rolls her eyes.]

Domino: Tell you what, I'll trade you a picture of me and an alien for a few candy canes.

Niall: Can't you... buy candy canes?

Domino: Free candy always tastes better.

[Cut to Niall looking in his pockets, and pulling out some cards. He runs desperately across the road. He cuts off Ryker, who ends up punting the steering wheel again. Niall enters a candy store and slams the money on the table.]

Niall: Candy canes! All of them!

[The girl behind the counter just slowly nods.]

[Cut to Niall with a full box of candy canes. Domino inspects one as if it was a cigar and then she starts chewing it. She pulls out a picture.]

Domino: I'm a girl of my word.

[Domino pulls out a picture of herself with an alien. It looks really clear.]

Niall: How did you?

Domino: Ruler of the world, duh. Who else is going to be ambassador to the stars?

Niall: I uh... I gotta show this to someone.

Domino: It's yours, do what you want with it.

[Domino gives a smile as Niall runs off.]

Domino: Bad photograph. Staged. Manipulated.

Kid #1: Wow mister, that's a really bad photograph. I guess it kinda looks like an alien.

Kid #2: Oh come on, that's so staged. You can't fool me.

Kid #3: It's obviously manipulated in some kind of computer program.

[Niall walks back up defeated, sitting next to Domino. He is distraught.]

Niall: It's... proof. Proof I've been looking my entire life for. And still, no one believes me.

Domino: Aliens, a leader of the world no one has heard about. It's all pretty crazy.

Niall: Yeah. I think I am crazy. You probably don't exist. I wonder if anyone else can even see you.

Domino: No, I left my invisibility belt at home.

Niall: I just... thought the night where I met THE SECRET RULER OF THE WORLD would go a little bit better.

[Kids just pass by, even as Niall shouts it. Then Niall's stomach growls.]

Niall: And now I'm hungry. What about you?

Domino: I could eat. I'm all out of candy canes.

[Cut to Niall's dining room. Sabrina is there, and Domino is there also with folded hands. Niall comes in with a big platter of food.]

Sabrina: So, who's your little friend, Niall?

Niall: No one special. Just the ruler of the world.

[Niall places the food down, and Domino starts to take some. Niall is not in the best mood]

Sabrina: Ruler of the world, huh? I suppose then you've eaten the finest most authentic Windian food in existence?

[Domino starts talking with her mouth full.]

Domino: Huh? Oh yeah.

Niall: Probably even eaten with the Windian prince.

Domino: Yeah, but he's pretty boring. His cow friends are pretty nice though.

Sabrina: So are you an alien perhaps? Niall's met one of those before, I heard. (laughs)

Niall: Sabrina! Not in front of... guests.

Sabrina: Sorry, I couldn't resist.

Domino: Alien? No, I'm Atlantean.

Sabrina: Atlantis?

Niall: Great, that's real too.

Domino: You should see it sometime.

Sabrina: But didn't it sink below the ocean like thousands of years ago?

[Domino facepalms.]

Domino: You clog the toilet once and you're never able to live it down. Yeah, we stopped inviting Playdo after he started that rumor.

Niall: I'm sure someone would have found it if it really did exist.

Domino: Look, if there's a place I don't want the general public knowing about, they don't know. It's why none of you have heard of Burbank.

[Niall slams his hands down on the table.]

Niall: I think I'm full.

[Niall leaves.]

Sabrina: I apologize. My son can be quite a bit uppity. He's a lot like his father, I think.

[Domino looks rather somber.]

Domino: No, he's not.

[Cut to Niall sitting on his roof, he's trying to disassemble his telescope. Domino is sitting on a high tree branch.]

Domino: Taking down your telescope?

Niall: Why bother? Aliens exist, I don't need to prove anything. Not that anyone would believe me if I did.

Domino: That's your problem? You never had an issue with people not believing you before.

[Niall looks up to the sky.]

Niall: Yeah, well now I realize that all of this is pointless.

Domino: Eh, what can you do? Some people want to believe that we're alone in the universe. That we're one speck of life in an infinite void of death. I guess some people find it more comforting.

Niall: And they call me crazy...

[Niall leaves the telescope up and then he crawls down a trellis to the ground. Domino falls into a pile of mowed grass, which causes her to giggle.]

Niall: Let me get this straight. You're ruler of the world.

Domino: Yup.

Niall: Live in Atlantis.

Domino: Mhm.

Niall: Met actual real aliens.

Domino: Had a tea party with them just last Tuesday.

Niall: And you're still amused by a mowed grass.

Domino: Universe is tiny, Niall.

[Niall falls backwards into the pile of pile of grass, causing them to just explode everywhere.]

Niall: Why haven't the aliens tried to contact us? The general public.

Domino: Do you of all kids have to ask that? Your little stunt caused me a great deal of trouble.

[Niall sits up.]

Niall: So that's why you're here? To... punish me for messing up intergalactic diplomacy.

Domino: Yup.

Niall: I knew it. Make it quick then.

Domino: First close your eyes.

Niall: Alright. Do your worst.

[Niall closes his eyes. Domino flicks Niall on the nose.]

Domino: And we're even.

[Niall opens up his eyes, and Niall grasps his nose.]

Niall: What did you do!? Is my nose gonna fall off!?

Domino: And you're starting to bore me again.

[Upon hearing that, Niall gets up and takes off, running through his yard.]

Niall: Who knows what she's going to make me do now. Probably turn me into an international super spy to do her bidding, controlling global geo politics.

[Domino's head pops down from a tree branch.]

Domino: Oooh, that sounds fun. What size suit do you wear? Nevermind, I already know.

[Domino holds down a suit.]

Niall: Gah. Why are you doing this to me?

[Domino flips herself down from the tree.]

Domino: Hey, I can't provide you all the answers, can I?

Niall: Stop toying with me, girl.

[Domino embraces Niall in a side hug again.]

Domino: Boy, I have 7.5 billion toys on this planet alone, and I have far more entertaining ones than you.

[Then Domino taps Niall on his chest.]

Domino: Tag, you're it!

[Niall starts running away.]

Domino: That's not how tag works! You're supposed to chase me!

[Cut to Niall hiding in a movie theater. His head pops out of a bag of popcorn. He looks from left to right.]

Niall: I think I finally got away. She's nowhere to be seen. In fact, I got the whole movie theater to myself. This is awesome.

[Cut to Niall looking at the screen. Domino appears on it.]

Domino: Boo.

[Cut to Niall running out of the theater screaming. He runs past a poster that says "Cuddlekins Rainbow Heart Adventure."]

Theater Kid #1: See, I told you that movie was scary.

Theater Kid #2: Here, five cards.

[Cut to Niall sitting on a ferris wheel.]

Niall: I'm... safe up here. Safe.

[A candy apple drops into Niall's lap.]

Niall: Candy apple?

[Niall looks up to see Domino looking down.]

Domino: Oh sorry, dropped that. You can keep it, I've got another one!

[Cut to two amusement park kids on the ground level.]

Amusement Park Kid #1: Can't wait to see how that kid handles the rollercoaster.

Amusement Park Kid #2: Whatever. I won the bet. Now give me my five—

[Niall's whole ferris wheel car falls down in front of them. Then Niall runs away screaming.]

Amusement Park Kid #2: I'll... pay you five cards if you clean that up.

Amusement Park Kid #1: I'll go get a mop.

[Cut to Niall rigging up a motor boat on the Summerway docks. He pulls the chord and the thing gets going into the water, then it finally stops in the middle of the lake.]

Niall: Finally... I'm safe.

Domino: Technically speaking, you were never in danger in the first place.

[Niall looks over the boat and sees Domino wearing mermaid scuba gear. She pulls herself onto the boat.]

Domino: This is more fun than I've had in a very long time. So, where are we going next?

Niall: I'm not going anywhere. I give up. Just do what you want to me.

[Domino takes out a switchblade knife, and Niall gulps.]

Domino: Tell me, why do you think that I'm going to do something horrible to you? That I have some big nefarious plan?

Niall: Besides the knife?

Domino: Yes, besides the knife.

Niall: Isn't that what a big shadowy cabal is supposed to do? Stop people like me from getting to the truth, giving me false leads thinking other kids are aliens, have no one believe me?

Domino: It sounds like you want this big shadowy cabal to exist to have someone to blame your problems on.

[Domino moves over to show what she's been carving. Her name into the boat, ending with Mü, the camera focuses on the last letter.]

Domino: There's a reason that this symbol means "smile."

Niall: So, what, you just wanted to take a break from ruling the world - which sounds like a pretty big job - to teach me a lesson?

Domino: So close and yet so far. No. I'm not here to teach you a lesson, to punish you, or even because you entertain me. This isn't some part of a grand master plan of mine. At least not one that you can comprehend.

Niall: Then I can't think of a reason. I can... only assume that there is no reason.

[Fireworks get shot off from Summerway as Domino has a big glorious expression.]

Niall: Was... that because I got the right answer?

Domino: You're smart, Niall, but you seem to forget there's a thing in this world called coincidence. Things happen Niall. They just do.

[A fish jumps onto the boat and starts flopping around.]

Domino: Sometimes they're good, and sometimes they're bad.

[Domino picks up the fish.]

Domino: We can only choose what we do with these coincidences.

[Domino puts the fish back in the water. From a down low shot, we see the fish tend to some eggs.]

Domino: And from there, experience more coincidences.

[There's a brief stillness.]

Domino: Do you want me to have a grand master plan? Figure out every little detail of your life completely within my own control? Or do you want to be the product of your own decisions?

Niall: You could have stopped me from riling up the town against Sally, couldn't you?

[Domino bonks Niall on the head.]

Domino: I can do whatever I want. I'm Domino.

[Domino pulls up a second mermaid scuba suit.]

Domino: I wanna show you something.

Niall: What do I got to lose?

[They both dive down into the waters, with the Cute Camp in the background. They dive over the sunken ships and come across a small cavern entrance. Domino beckons inside. They follow it until it opens up into stone buildings that are partially submerged. They come up into an air pocket. There's a bunch of carvings in the stone, some of which include Domino's symbol.]

Niall: What is this?

Domino: Summerway's undercity. I thought you would have figured this out by now. You're not as far along as I thought you were.

Niall: I gotta tell the museum about this!

Domino: Like they'll believe you.

[Niall walks for a moment, and then he shouts.]

Domino: Cave in would certainly be an interesting way to go.

Niall: N-no, I'm just frustrated. This is amazing, and no one is going to believe me, even if I took pictures. I could even drag them down here, and they wouldn't care. No one believes in anything.

Domino: You believed in me before you knew me.

Niall: That's because... I'm crazy, I guess.

Domino: But you were right and they were wrong. You are right and they are wrong.

Niall: So what, it doesn't matter if they don't believe me?

Domino: I'm not saying that at all. It shouldn't take other people for you to know the truth, right?

Niall: I guess. It'd be nice.

Domino: Yeah. It'd also be nice if I solved everyone's problems all the time. Everyone living in a boring happy utopia where nothing bad ever happens and no one gets to make a meaningful decision.

[Niall looks at some of the cave drawings.]

Niall: So what, everything you do is about us, growing to be better people?

Domino: Phfft, no. I'd be bored out of my mind if it weren't for the chaos of you mortals.

Niall: Mortal?

Domino: Kidding. Or kidding about kidding. Maybe everything I told you today was a lie.

Niall: But... you gave me proof.

Domino: And you gave proof too.

[Domino gives a sideways smile. Domino looks to some of the cave drawings.]

Domino: One of the most... fascinating things about people is their own truths. Do you know why this whole place is underground?

Niall: No?

[We have a flashback scene.]

Domino: Well, it wasn't underground a few hundred years ago. Kids wanted to build this huge stone beautiful city by Little Dipper Lake.

[We see kids carving mountains into stone buildings and creating quite the spectacle.]

Domino: Of course there were some issues. The ground was swampy, and some kids noticed it.

[An old timey version of Niall is seen complaining to an old timey version of town hall.]

Domino: But no one believed them. This kid was just trying to erase their hard work, he didn't want to work himself. And as such he was the only one not in the city when it sank into the swamps.

[Back to modern day.]

Domino: Then I wanna say, a couple hundred years ago, someone "found" this spot and built up Summerway.

Niall: It... must have ended badly.

Domino: People will cling to their own understanding of reality, and the "grand plan" they're a part of above all else.

Niall: I still wish people could... see this.

Domino: We could turn it into a clubhouse, that'd be pretty cool.

Niall: Don't you have a clubhouse?

Domino: Yeah, Europa.

Niall: Europa. That reminds me! Come on, I want to show you something.

[Cut to Niall's room. He's pulling Domino in. And in here we see a conspiracy board, where he seems to be tracking down his father. He's been checking planets and moons for his location. Domino looks closely at it.]

Niall: I don't expect you to tell me... the truth. But can you give me a hint, am I at least getting closer?

Domino: Niall, all you need to do is ask and I will tell you anything you want to know.

Niall: Am I going to like the answer?

Domino: No.

[Niall sits down on his bed.]

Niall: Just tell me why the aliens abducted him. You're ambassador to the stars. You gotta know. Why him? Why not... someone else's dad.

Domino: That's not a question I can answer.

Niall: But you just said—

Domino: That is something you're going to need to figure out on your own Niall. I can only say this. He's a lot closer than you think.

Niall: Like... in this solar system?

Domino: Yes.

[Niall looks to a chart of the solar system, then he starts thinking as Domino walks to the door.]

Niall: Wait, there is a question I want to know.

[Domino pauses.]

Niall: Is he... doing okay?

Domino: He's scared, wherever he is. He's come across circumstances that he doesn't quite know how to handle.

Niall: I hope he's able to get away.

[Domino walks to the door and the shadows that wash over her are used to transition to another house far away. We see a man that is clearly Niall's father, the resemblance is strong. His name is Quinton. He is leaving a woman that is not Sabrina, Clara.]

Clara: Quinton Bhatt, you can't do this to me. You can't do this to Galvin, to Roxie...

Quinton: I... don't have any options.

Clara: You're... such a coward. Is this what you do when things start to get hard? Run away?

Quinton: We'll talk about this later.

Clara: And what am I supposed to tell Galvin?

[Quinton doesn't even answer. He gets on a bicycle and he starts riding off. In the window we see Galvin looking off. This is used to juxtapose Niall looking through his own window, specifically at the planet Venus. He's drawing on a chalkboard.]

Niall: I will find you, Quinton. I swear it.

[Cut to downstairs, with Domino about to leave. Sabrina is on the couch, not looking very happy.]

Domino: Niall is going to figure out the truth sooner or later. And when that bomb goes off, it's going to be painful for everyone involved.

Sabrina: Why do you care?

Domino: Niall has a part to play, and he's wasting his time looking for aliens or me.

Sabrina: What do you want me to do?

Domino: I can't tell you what to do, now can I?

[Domino says, looking at the camera, before she leaves the Bhatt house.]
