Student Led Conferences
November 14th- November 18th

We are excited to continue Student Led Conferences this year during the week of November 14th through November 18th, 2022. Student led conferences are a way for your students to share their learning experiences this year at Roosevelt. The district has moved to this model to prioritize student ownership and agency over their learning. We value our students' voices and thoughts and are looking forward to empowering our students to share their learning, challenges and goals for this school year.

You will be meeting with your student and their advisory teacher for fifteen minutes where your student will lead a short presentation that includes their reflections on this year so far, sharing work from content classes and discussing their goals for the year.

There will be five appointments every afternoon.(2:30pm, 2:50pm, 3:10pm, 3:30pm, 3:50pm) If you are unable to attend any of these times, please contact the grade level counselor, and they can help you find a trusted adult at school who can accompany your student for their conference. Instruction ends at 2:15pm every day that week. Appointments are being offered in person and online this year. When you sign up, you will have the option to choose which works best for you.

You will only sign up for one appointment with your student's advisory teacher. If you would like to speak to any other of your students' teachers, please contact them directly to find a time outside of student led conference week.

You will receive an email from your student's advisory teacher by October 28th (Friday) with information on how to sign up. You can find videos here to support with signing up for an appointment or reach out to your grade level counselor.
