DoWorkHK commented 3 yr. ago

his videos are outdated and he won't be the biggest for long, just cause someone did it for years don't mean he's the most passionate. There are big bois waiting for this game for years who are prepping as well.

When Koreans drop by KR/Eng speaking streamers like ZealsAmbitions's stream the KR players are so curious why the West is so sensitive about this topic. They are mostly f2p over there as well or at most spending like 20$ a month on their hobby.

Saint was invited by Zeals and zeals already said he will make saint mvp with synergy in a talk show which is on zeals channel on YouTube. Zeals had to put up with no mana no synergy not even being able to do full rotation to get the kill and got no recognition

DoWorkHK replied to Monicako 2 yr. ago

This is completely a bad take. Zeals sacrificed his enjoyment as he wasn't even getting mana synergy from the bard to get the group to even kill it. He invited Saint. He made sure the boss died and played extremely well. He didn't want any recognition for his weapon he already got plenty for that. It was Zeals idea to even bring saint over and get him mvp but saint didn't even for a second recognize this. He apologized to zeals in hindsight made a bad call about Fas being mvp

Just cause someone online says someone did something doesn't mean they did. Zeals didn't insult anyone over a 5/4 cause he never cut her a 5/4 it was 5/5 and it was never the helmet either so you bought a fool's lie.

Zeals has been the only "kr streamer" having a blast and been super positive. He's playing in full kr streamer prog and statics and not doomer at all.

His prog for thaemine and echidna has been very entertaining and positive with absolutely zero negativity and him just laughing or smiling.

If he's as trash as this lil subreddit makes him out to be why are the biggest kr lost ark streamers like Ida who is pulling the highest numbers KR side raiding with him? Lilka a huge KR influencer as well.

I feel like all this fake news is zeals maybe a year ago but lately he's just been having a blast and joking back and forth with random viewer. If he was so toxic and out of line as Reddit five randos say he is where are the clips? The cancellations? Bans? Receipts?

Apparently ATK got super toxic which led to her getting death threats to her and her parents from in game chat for having a few drinks after said break up in that raid. There are receipts as she sent them to Zeals.

All over two wipes in gate 1 and one shotting gate 2 and 3. Zeals even tried to keep it positive and did 35% dmg each gate to make sure they cleared without retries in gate 2 and 3 and apologized after. Atk left Discord so fast he never heard the apology but 3000 of zeals viewers and wineblue did. Atk later whined zeals didn't apologize when he was the one who haughtily left discord.

Ah that's right they aren't the same stop grouping them up. Zeals just minding his own business doesn't get into anybody's lane and just having a blast every stream.

Downvotes will come with zero proof or evidence of otherwise. Also Reddit just hates people they are jealous of or getting all W's. And zeals like Asmon share the notion that people who use subreddit for lost ark or wow in 2024 are just bottom of the loserarchy and here I am

I think the problem isn't Korea, it's just that people listen these days to 2 to 3 words someone says online in a 30 minute video, podcast, a post, whatever and just twists it out of context. You can have an opinion but doesn't mean it's right. 조니니 literally agreed with what Zeals said near the start of her stream the mother of lost ark kr. It's insanely hard to get into normal gate 3 in a pug setting right now as Zeals said and even harder to beat normal gate 3 in a pug right now. As a matter of fact less than 5 pugs have beaten it this week thus far in normal. Keep sticking to your hopes and dreams but what he said isn't far off from reality in KR which is the context he's speaking about.

Weren't good enough lol. I wonder when jealous Reddit haters will one day just admit when they are just jealous haters. During prog he stepped up.

Jealous haters say he's bad. Other Redditors say but he mvp'd all gates and carried the dmg or else they would've hit enrage timers in both gates.

Jealous haters say well he has Esther 8. Other Redditors say but he used Balthorr Esther 8.

Jealous haters say well he still spent more money. Other Redditors say but he died the least, learned the quickest and knew all sword patterns and was shot calling and raid leading, calling other players that they have poop debuff and crosshair debuff aka babysitting them while pumping the most dmg.

Jealous Redditors say well he's not good enough. LOL

It was clearly him getting grabbed during day one prog the reason why they could kill him right? Not.

There were red flags with the group overall when he had to switch to Punisher and did 30% of the raids dmg for the kill attempts that led to the eventual kill.

Simple fact you can't acknowledge is he pulled his weight if not way more while others fell way short.

 r/lostarkgame • After gold river stream, am I the only one hyped?????

DoWorkHK replied to Plasmul 8 mo. ago

Well it's just facts in the numbers. It's plain as day as you see the behavior here and the numbers in upvotes and downvotes as well as the stats for twitch and Youtube. Few reddits jealously hating on zeals while he's winning vs saint on twitch and youtube are just facts backed by numbers as you can see on this thread.

Honestly, nobody really even said anything nasty about zeals here like in the jealous haters in the past so I'm a little sad there wasn't enough popcorn 🍿 but Reddit browsers for lost ark these days are abysmal as currently 1/7 of twitch viewers in the same category. The people liking what he's doing in the game and his opinions for the game faaar outweighs whatever few insecure redditors have against zeals. I mean ultimately asmon is talking to zeals and watching zeals not whoever happens to be reddit's poster child. He's not afraid to voice the opinions people are sharing to him about their na eu experience and tries to get something done instead of dodging cause he genuinely loves the game and his community and that's why they go to him en masse. The dudes got no filter when it comes to bad systems in the game and lost ark fanatics hate that.

Saint just does good type content and Reddit are text enjoyers. Zeals approach is stream and vids for vid enjoyers that gets more eyeballs, which goes against a Reddit enjoyer who likes concise text. Again, two people doing two separate things.

I have no problem stating the obvious and seeing blatant hating and jealousy backed by no logical facts. People love to copy pasta the same thing about streamers for months here without even leaving Reddit to even see the streamers that they are bandwagon hating on. Nobody presented any reason or data on why zeals is wrong about the gold river stream or anything for that matter

 r/lostarkgame • COUNTDOWN FOR 2023 LOAON SUMMER.

DoWorkHK replied to Jumpy-Housing-6039 9 mo. ago

Huh? I watch him a lot and he never said anything like this and what the person you're replying to is correct. Just look at twitch analytics bro. The Slayer nerf was a big nerf to Punisher is what he said after testing and varies by how good the player is at Punisher. You just have selective hearing or just went for few seconds for answers to a problem he's working on and needs time to resolve.

Second, he said Lost Ark has fallen off in users (not streamers) which is true. He does have screenshots because it's posted on every Korean gaming site. Lost Ark is now 10th as of May 2023 for popular games in Korea went from 3rd to 10th in a few months.

Stop the cap and the streamer hate. Obviously you should take everything with a grain of salt and streamers are supposed to talk out of their ass they stream 200+ hours a month for a living hello?

r/lostarkgame • Will there be a community guide for Slayer before it releases?

DoWorkHK replied to nameisnowgone 10 mo. ago

Ah no hell title = bad gotcha so 99% of Korean playerbase are bad since hell participation is hella low.

Since you clearly don't watch him let me recap his hell Valtan and vykas with streamer friends he streamed. He wasn't the one with the most deaths or screw ups he was on the low end. Sorry that disappoints you. Voldike prog he did well and chat in all three streams didn't even throw shade at him and was silent cause he was actually a quick learner and using a previous tier brel wep..

You ignored the facts and points I made is naeu his main region? Does he play naeu with cutting edge seriousness like you would cuz it's your main region? No he literally goes on NA to unwind and not be sweaty. The dudes just gets on to fall off Valtan to get ppl to laugh.

If you think someone who streams and plays lost ark everyday can't get deathless Helltan than I have no words for you. If he has to clear that to prove a point then your measurement for skill is pretty sad. Deathless Helltan was even for west standards not even that hard and even placed lower in difficulty than other raids that were not inferno. Throwing time and rinse repeating wow so hard. Sounds like any mmo fight. And proves my point that zeals does rinse repeat on slayer and knows his thing that's why you are being biased "cuz no title" literally gatekeeping guide makers cuz "no title"

You may rinse repeat hellmodes but he's doing that with something else he finds fun which is fine tuning his slayer, not sure why you keep dodging this fact and discredit him so hard. All his work is invalid in your point cuz he spends money on a character he loves playing? How is that not a biased take? So let me get this straight because he likes his slayer and wants to build her to her ceiling potential and try different if not all builds and cash helped him do that that disqualifies someone from a guide? I rather listen to what he's got to say than someone who never even created the class... what..? Just sounds like you're poor and you do hellmode cuz can't compete outside, how does that make you feel when I discredit you the way you do?

You call me a cultist and throw shade at people acting all elitist up in here when I'm just trying to say the truth and say nice thing rather than hatin on someone who has done well for the community and who isn't even here to defend himself. Tells a lot about your character. The fact is he has earned the right to make a decent guide for slayer. Not sure why a hell title is a criteria when it's a slayer guide from a slayer main who loves his character and he is in trixion and actual fights on and off stream to hone his builds. You are a jealous hater who discredit all I said about him cuz he simply swiped and spends his time wisely playing and interacting with viewers and working on his slayer than doing Helltan... or hell whatever on repeat 18 hours a day for weeks with zero chat engagement, which again has nothing to do with a slayer guide.

If you think he's incapable of explaining or showcasing his class, which is what you said, that's just not true.

Once again he throws cash but you provided no examples or clips or evidence of him not knowing slayer 101 and being bad at slayer and it's rotation or knowledge stay on topic bra. People can spend not just for power but cause they are attached and love what they do or what they want to dress up.

DoWorkHK replied to nameisnowgone 10 mo. ago

I knew this was coming. What does na eu where he's trolling around and having fun with viewers (that's literally the point of naeu content for him to play and chillax with his audience) with 250 ms have anything to do with slayer and slayer guide? You just state these claims backed by nothing. You were already proven wrong about you being a regular viewer lol.

It's just so sickening you call me biased yet when someone mentioned about zeals making a guide you had to just drop some hate saying he's bad based off no evidence it's pretty disrespectful to any person. What's more biased you saying a person who literally plays slayer all day and loves testing his class who he also happened to invest a lot of gold on bad, over other ppl who never played the class making guide as good vs me saying he loves slayer and does well on her? Inferno deathless title doesn't prove skill lol. It's not like that hard to grind if you put the time and effort. Don't think he's got anything to prove he's got a good audience and community who supports him. Maybe you need to stroke your ego to someone on discord w/e. Haters like you just will never can acknowledge or compliment someone you hate.

Even if he got a title you'd say class carried him or team mates or oh only Valtan deathless. He gets another boss and same rinse and repeat. Look he's clearly successful and having fun doing his thing. Stay in your lane.

Yeah you don't watch him at all. Liar spotted. If you actually watch him play his Slayer wd scrapper or gs he never ever asks for heals. The streamers he plays with literally types in Korean to let pug bard know this guy loves dmg buffs only. He dislikes bards heals and ask them nicely to give yongmaeng and on purpose doesn't stand in the heal that his trademark and you don't know that bro.

The sad truth is he's good and doesn't stay on the floor lol? He literally cruel fighters every fight and rarely ever pots. Latest akkan raid he took 1 pot. He rarely ever gets hit and on the ground what? He has insane uptime it's why he gaps so hard I know you are being jealous and illogical and think it's just swipe swipe.

I'm just giving him a fair points cause what you say isn't happening and it's really not only biased but as you said in the last sentence just reeks of jealousy.

Give me a clip or any vid of him doing what you said or misplaying. Cause let's say he just swipes all day then his rotation must be all over the place if he's bad or dead and never in mvp or even cruel fighter. Good luck finding that clip.

Name one week in the last 6 weeks he didn't get underline cruel fighter or mvp all gates of Akkan brel or voldike or kayangel and I'll rest my case. I'll put money down if you want ^

He's by no means bad. There is a reason why he's the biggest goblin cuz he knows when to greed and how. It's pretty bad take especially when you don't even watch the streamer playing said class. You might hate on him all day but he knows the most about slayer and experience out of other ones that cover slayer as a content creator. He does exceptionally well on slayer and knows his stuff.

Bad take Zeals rotation is pretty good hence why he's mvp'ing all the time. I know jealous people can't admit it but you can just spend and press random buttons and mvp all the time. Also I don't think you watch him at a he knows clearly what the weakness of his classes are cause he nonstop complains about it.

DoWorkHK replied to scapiander 1 yr. ago

Do you even watch his stream he mvps all fights last few months even on none Esther alts.

Last two weeks alone MVPed every tower on WD and Slayer. All six gates of Brel and three gates of Akkan on both chars. Slayer did 39%. As said though he still mvped all six gates on his new rising Gunslinger and CF first two clears (out of 2) of Akkan hards. Reaper and his Aeromancer doing the same. I mean you sound like a jealous hater copiuming hard that all Esther owners are bad, but the truth is Zeals does know how to squeeze whether you want to give credit where due.

I just find it odd that some folks on Reddit, who never watched a stream of the streamer they hate, comment about their plays. The facts are right there for those that watch it's rare that he doesn't mvp.

DoWorkHK replied to FluffyBwear 1 yr. ago

Huh? Go check zeals vod on twitch. Not the latest but the one before where he busted out the notepad. He listed alllll the complaints lost ark KR players also have and how the game is doing bad in Korea as well. He talked about it to death for hours people started leaving the stream because they come for good vibes not him saying the game people are watching is suffering miserably in Korea as well. People in the west keep saying they have it bad and KR is great yet forget KR lost soooooo many players. KR making hate posts about :

Pheons they hate it on rocks and everything like us.

Lack of balance patch as promised

Lack of communication as promised

Hyping up collab and failing to deliver

Lack of incentives and rewards at endgame

Over promising and not delivering what they promised

On and on

Go watch zeals vod from yesterday where he talks about all the people in Korea upset at Smilegate for hours and come back and say it's fine in Korea LOL

And you quoted him out of context. He said nobody in the world likes Pheon. He even showed posts in Korea complaining about Pheon the other day. The fact is as he said Pheon is their cash cow. Which sucks as he said but realistically won't see any changes soon.

Amongold said the same thing. Don't like Pheon? Quit. Don't support them.

He never ever said that. He even said he didn't on strim. He said people were upset and didn't say they quit over it. He talked about your useless post on strim and how people like you use his name to say bs and give it any weight by adding his name. Once again you are unable to link anything.

I think the problem with Zeals and yourself is that you're trying to say all specs are gonna be equal in group content or PVP content, and we know even in 'solved' games like chess that white-player wins 55% of the time just from the advantage of going first. Many 'solved' games are like this.

There are definitely classes that require less skill checks to maximize your DPS and survivability, these are the classes people should start off with as their first level 50 char.

> E.g., You narrowed your choices down to Berserker, Warlord, Paladin. You hear Berserker is the best at the moment so you play Berserker. Then Berserker gets nerfed two months later and now he's not the best, which was the sole reason you picked him over your other choices. Are you going to reroll mains every balance patch?

Zeals admits he's fully rerolled mains 6 times so far on Korea server. So yes? Or more specifically most people pick 2-3 classes and switch between them as needed when a balance patch leads to a nerfing.

DoWorkHK · 2 yr. ago

He never said they are equal. He said tier lists of endgame of Korea made by a person who doesn't play endgame in Korea while not explaining why it is the way it is harmful. You clearly didn't watch or understand you just twisted it in a way for your own liking.

Also he switched mains not because of nerfs. His sorc got nerfed and sorc is busted for now in Korea so stop trying to act like you know Zeals.

Question

Planning to play this game, but wondering about MS/Ping's affect on gameplay.
Is any ping over 100 MS unplayable? I'm guessing I'll average around 88-200 ish Thanks!
