

CURRENCY	When was it published/updated? Does the date matter for your topic?	Site One Site Two
RELEVANCE	Is the information meant to be used in an educational way? Does the entire article relate to your topic? What other topics are covered in the article?	Site One Site Two
AUTHORITY	Who is the author/publisher/sponsor? Are they credible? (Google them!) What kind of website is it? (News, Ad, Blog, Business...)	Site One Site Two
ACCURACY	Are there grammar or spelling errors? Are there tons of ads? Do other sources give the same information? Is there supporting evidence? (Videos, Photos, Interviews)	Site One Site Two
PURPOSE	Is this information: Fact    Opinion    Propaganda Why does this article exist?: Inform    Teach    Sell    Entertain Persuade What bias exists? Look for connotations and emotional language	Site One Site Two Site Three

Shared by Blake Norby