11300 UNITED STATES HISTORY II Honors (1 credit)

This intensive course explores United States history starting with the role of the United States in World War I. Students examine the Great Depression, New Deal, World War II, and the Cold War, concluding with an examination of domestic and global policies and politics in the 21st century. Throughout the course, students will transfer their learning to the present so they may become more active participants in a democratic society and a complex world. Students will use the course content to become better readers, researchers and communicators empowering them to make informed civic choices and engage as active citizens. Although the format of United States History II honors is the same as United States History II college prep, students at this level should be reading and writing above grade level and must be prepared to engage in more independent learning, more outside reading, the reading of more complex texts and more in-depth writing assignments. Prerequisite: Maintain a 75% average or better in prior Honors level History and Social Science Education course or upon recommendation of teacher. (Full year course, required course for grade 11)
