Gb Ab
Recognize me yet? I'll give you a clue

Spoken:
Syndrome -I owe you that much. After all, I am your biggest fan
Mr. Incredible - What?
Syndrome starts to laugh - I went through a lot to be ready to face the "Greatest Super the world has ever know!" And you don't even recognize me? I don't know why I expected anything else

Song resumes, but to the tune of the star of Glory Days

Hello, my name is Syndrome

Although, I used to have another name

You should know, I could've been your sidekick

But you so, look down on those below you

Spoken:

Mr. Incredible - Buddy!

Syndrome - My name's not buddy! And it's not Incrediboy anymore either! That ship has sailed! All I wanted was to help you. I only wanted to Help! And what did you say to me? "Fly Home Buddy, I work alone." It tore me apart, but I learned an important lesson. You can't count on anyone, especially your heroes.

Mr. Incredible- I'm sorry. I shouldn't have treated you that way

Syndrome - You're sorry, because now you respect me. Because now I have power too! You'd be surprised how much people, whole countries will pay for that power, that respect.

Song resumes with the original tune

Db

But now I am Super

Gb Db

And the world is gonna adore me

Db

I'll make Everyone Super

Gb Ab

And then no one will be

The song ends with Mr. Incredible throwing something at a distracted Syndrome

Syndrome - You sly dog, you got me monolguing!
