

Scott Adie

Manchester, NH - (603) 944-0668 – hnhirefeb15@sc0tt.net
<http://www.scottadie.com>

Objective:

To contribute software development knowledge and skills to a place of work that promotes constant learning and teaching.

Education:

University of New Hampshire at Manchester Manchester, NH
Graduated with Honors in May 2013 with a Bachelors degree in Computer Information Systems

NHTI – Concord's Community College Concord, NH
Graduated in May, 2011 with an Associates degree in Information Technology

Timberlane Regional High School Plaistow, NH
Graduated May, 2009

Employment History:

DEKA Research Manchester, NH 2012-Present
Software Engineer – Wrote applications to improve the workflow of other developers, lead code reviews pertaining to these applications, and improved the workflow for integration testing. Contributed to the development of a class 2 medical device. Adhered to strict FDA software development guidelines.

The Pie Guy Salem, NH 2010-2013
IT / Developer – Managed the implementation of an ERP system for a small company. Efficiently directed work flow throughout the team. Developed an inventory system to track incoming supplies and purchases.

48HourPrint.com Manchester, NH 2011-2011
Intern Developer – Assisted in the development and maintenance of the 48HourPrint.com back-end as well as customer websites. Effectively improved existing SQL scripts.

Technical Knowledge:

- Python - Developed applications incorporating first and third party modules which are used on a company-wide level. Extensive use of libraries such as PySide, Flask, Peewee
- Databases - Familiar with MySQL, PostgreSQL, and ORMs used to interface with them.