Hey blank, how are you today? Awesome, so im with pro script marketing calling you about an opportunity we have for you. I know over our message you expressed some interest in automating your email newsletter. Is that something youd still be interested in? Great! Do you already have an email newsletter or just starting out? Just starting out. No problem. So the reason why the newsletter is so critical for any business is when youre running paid ads and driving traffic to your business, youre gonna have a plethora of buyers who arent ready to buy yet. This is why its important to have a landing page set up to collect their information. Its like getting a 2nd chance on a sale but also its ensuring you get more out of your advertising. Here at proscript marketing we recommend at least 4 emails per week but we have packages at 1 all the way up to 7 packages per week. Do you have a number in mind you would like for your newsletter?

To some business owners 4 emails or more per week may seem a bit spammy or they may feel as if theyre annoying their customers. Let me assure you its not. The customers who sign up for your newsletter are expressing consent that they wish to get mail from you! And at 4 emails or more a week youll be sure your customer doesnt forget about you. So when hes ready to buy guess where hes gonna go?

I seen what you're doing and i think youre doing an excellent job. Ive worked with a lot of blank. And one of things that really made a difference for them was blank. Like giving the website a different look or different wording blah blah blah making these small improvements for them has increased their output massively.

This Little Mistake Could Cost Mechanics Thousands of Dollars Every Month...

Do you spend everyday bent over an engine bay, desperate to overcome that annoying light on the dashboard? Do you often face setbacks due to your OBD-II reader feeding you vague codes? Perhaps, because of this, you watch the time slip away as each guess and check ends in failure. While your persistence and refusal to give up is admirable, it really doesn't have to be this hard! So keep on reading because I HAVE YOUR SOLUTION!

Modern vehicles have more advanced systems that require up-to-date tools to be able to communicate effectively with them. Cheap code readers are much more likely to be outdated, faulty, and spread misinformation, likely due to the low-quality and cheap hardware found within them. Any tool of this quality would result in tarnishing your customer reputation, which is giving money to your competitors. So why shouldn't you have the proper tools to work with these new advanced systems?

The Autel MaxiCOM MK808S OBD-II Scanner™ offers what those diagnostic tools cannot. Made from high quality materials, this advanced device provides thorough reports, has fast communication, and it's perfect for those who seek a clear understanding of what issues lie within their vehicles.

Key features of the MK808S include:

- A large, easy-to-read LCD screen that displays all essential information about the vehicle being diagnosed.
- Comprehensive analysis, including fault codes and potential issues, helping you diagnose problems before they become serious.
- Equipped with 38+ functions.
- Advanced features like bidirectional/active tests, service interval resets, and key fob programming.
- Automatic and easy connectivity with free updates for one year.
- Supports almost all 1996 and newer vehicles. Compatible with 150+ car brands.

Any little mistake could cost you a LOT of money. So why risk it using low-quality tools? If you're a professional mechanic, fleet manager, or someone who needs in-depth diagnostics, investing in a high-end scanner is worth it. No more guesswork, vague codes, or wasted time.

Dave is a white (66% of mechanics are white) 30-55 year old (Average age for mechanics is 42) mechanic (96% of mechanics are men) who is either a DIY enthusiast or an employed mechanic/shop owner. Dave's political views are decided by fact rather than labels. He slightly aligns more with the republicans than democrats. Dave was a bum and only got a high school diploma or GED (42% majority) he did not go to college. Dave is a sinner, he is not religious but is very pro science. Things need to be proven for him to believe them. Dave is 4.5ft tall (Cause fuck Dave thats why lol). He enjoys the work he does and would be making about $40k-$60k per year (Average salary for mechanics is $48k per year). The problem he has is the requirement to get a job as a mechanic he needs to have his own tools (Most mechanics need to buy their own tools). He partially wishes to find a good quality OBD2 scanner but isn't looking to spend a ton of money on it (the Autel brand is cheaper and offers all the same benefits as the expensive ones). He's single or has a wife who understands why he needs to spend the money on new tools. He enjoys the now and again bump of snow so he's no stranger to spending some money on himself. He spends his free time typically under the hood of his cars or someone else's. To pick up some extra cash he also has his own clients who bring their cars to his house for repair. So his weekends and time can get booked up quickly.

This Little Mistake Could Cost Car Owners Thousands of Dollars Every Month...

The MK808S has saved me thousands of dollars right from the start. No more getting ripped off by dealerships for things I can do myself. Even if you're not a DIY person, you can still get the codes and tell the dealership to simply fix that issue. Never again will I be taken advantage of when the check engine light comes on. No more guesswork, sketchy salesman, or misinformation.

With this scanner I can easily find the parts I need online and often at a much better price. It's incredibly easy to use, making it clear how dealerships charge insane prices for simple fixes.

After months of research, I chose the Autel Scanner MaxiCOM MK808S, which continues to exceed my expectations. My only regret is not getting it sooner to avoid all the times I was ripped off. I no longer worry about the check engine light popping on as I will know about any issue ahead of time. If you want to learn how to avoid dealership scams, click the link below!

Cheap code readers are much more likely to be outdated, faulty, and spread misinformation, likely due to the low-quality and cheap hardware found within them. Any tool of this quality would result in lengthening the workload on your vehicle.

Owning a car is expensive, and taking it to a shop or dealership for repairs can be even more expensive. As a car owner, I used to dread going to the dealership because of their steep prices. They would always pressure me with a list of additional repairs and make me feel like I was making a BIG mistake by not getting them fixed.

I wondered if there was a way to take more control of my vehicle maintenance. Thankfully, there is. A device that gives you a thorough report of your vehicle. With this, I no longer worry about being up sold on unnecessary parts or services. Now, I can confirm exactly what my vehicle needs before agreeing to any repairs.

Expert Repairs, DIY Price!

Owning a car is expensive, and taking it to a shop or dealership for repairs can be even more expensive. Today, we see prices being hiked up on just about everything. Groceries, gas, rent, diapers, and you guessed it, auto parts! DIY mechanics would rather learn and handle all repairs themselves instead of paying a premium at a shop or dealership. However, this process can be challenging for those who possess an unreliable code reader.

You see, cheap code readers are much more likely to be outdated, faulty, and spread misinformation. Any tool of this quality would result in lengthening the time necessary to work on your vehicle. Ultimately, wasting your time and money.

You've probably found yourself making multiple trips to the auto store to buy additional parts you forgot you needed. But when you finally ask the employee at the counter for help, your problem is solved almost instantly. With their equipment, they're able to see exactly what part your vehicle needs but also how much of it. What if you could have this technology too?

The Autel MaxiCOM MK808S OBD-II Scanner™ gives you all that and more! No longer will you have to perform guess and checks to eradicate that annoying light on the dashboard. Now, you can see exactly what part you need, how much of it, and also receive a guide with the correct steps to fixing your problems!

This Roadside Emergency Kit Could Save Your Life...

Roadside emergencies are something all drivers have to experience at some point in their lives. The thing is, it's impossible to know when the next one will happen. Will it be a year from now? A month? A week? Who knows! While you can't stop them from happening, you can be ready when that day comes.

It is our belief that every driver should have a plan in place for handling a flat tire. Sure, you could call a tow truck or pay someone for their help, but let's be honest—emergencies can strike when you least expect it, and you might find yourself stranded without cell service. That's why we created the VEVOR Electric Car Jack Kit™, to keep you safe when the unexpected happens.

What's in the kit?

- Electric Car Jack - Quickly lift your car off the ground
- Impact Drill - Quickly remove tires with ease
- Tire Inflation Tool - Inflate your spare tire
- 2 Double Sided Impact Sockets - Fits most vehicles
- Pair of Gloves
- Window Breaker
- Seatbelt Cutter

Because we care deeply about everyone's safety on the road, we highly recommend having something like this in your vehicle. Even if you don't choose us, that's okay—our main concern is making sure you get home safe. Our goal is to save lives by providing you with this 3-in-1 emergency kit.

For those who choose to buy from us, we have a special offer for you! Use code G&G10OFF for $10 OFF your order and also receive a FREE guide! And if you purchase within the next 48 hours, you'll also receive a FREE GIFT worth $30 (shipped separately)!

At Grime & Gears Automotive, we're all about giving you the best tools and the best experience. That's why we are happy to present to you our 60-Day Money-Back Guarantee. Not only that, but returns are on us! If for any reason you're not head-over-wheels in love with your kit, just let us know within 60 days, and we'll handle the return shipping for FREE.

P.S. We only have 8 left in stock so don't delay!

Hello, I haven't opened any of these. They're all in the condition in which they were sent to me. When I bought it, it said "free returns for 90 days". I am still in that time frame. I should be able to return this for a FULL REFUND. $5 is absolutely pathetic. So let me go ahead and tell you what happens if you scam me out of this. You will receive the nastiest negative feedback you've ever received in your life, followed by investigations into your little corrupt business by the BBB or if in China than the equivalent to them. Do the right thing.
