HOJA 7

MODEL COMPOSITION.

My name isand I am a student at Medina Azahara secondary school in Cordoba. This is a typical weekday in my life.

I usually get up very early on weekdays. I have a quick shower and get dressed. Then I have breakfast. I always have a glass of milk and some toast for breakfast. After breakfast, I always brush my teeth. Then, I get my schoolbag and I walk to school. I live near school, so it takes me ten minutes to get to school. I always walk to school with my friends. I get to my classroom at about ten past eight and talk to my classmates. Lessons begin at quarter past eight. We have six lessons and a half an hour break every day. I usually have a sandwich and play football during the break.

School finishes at quarter to three. I walk back home with my friends. When I get home, I am always very hungry. I usually have lunch with my family at half past three. After lunch, I have a rest and talk to my sister. Then, at about half past four I do my homework and study. I often have a snack at about six o'clock in the afternoon. I have football training twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursday, from seven to eight in the evening. My family and I have dinner at about half past nine. Then we usually watch TV. I never go to bed after eleven o'clock. I sometimes read in bed.

I think life is hard for a student, but I am happy with my daily routine because I have a rest at the weekends.
