Refund and Revision Policies

A-writer.com Review A-writer.com Review I am a client of A-writer for two years and I am so happy that I found this team. Each paper I got from them is custom and original, it is formatted properly and meets all the requirements I pass to this team. I recommend these guys to anyone who is looking for an affordable writing help.

A-writer.com Review

A-writer.com has proven to be a reliable writing service, with 100% original, no-plagiarism papers, good prices, and stellar customer support. Its most unique feature, however, is the direct access to the writers, which helps make sure that customers receive the high-quality orders they deserve.

In the search for the best online writing services, we've reviewed dozens of options, and A-writer.com was one of them.

If you go to A-writer.com, the first thing you notice is the simplicity of the website design. There is no expensive UX, animations, and gizmos, and they are not necessary. The website is easy-to-browse as it is, and it loads very fast, which is very important for placing the order.

Right away, you also see the number of writers that A-writer.com has online, the satisfaction rating, and the total number of completed orders, which adds credibility to this service.

If you are looking for social proof, the website also provides some A-writer.com reviews, which are overwhelmingly positive:

But since there is no way to prove that this feedback is, in fact, legit, we decided to give A-writer.com a try ourselves.

A-Writer.com Review

A-Writer.com is neither the largest nor the most successful academic writing service out there, but they are certainly capable of delivering great results. They are highly selective over the researchers, writers and editors that they hire, ensuring that the global pool of talent they hire matches up with their high expectations. Many of the writers have decades of experience in writing at all academic levels and for all kinds of different academic texts and compositions.

Services the Site Provides

Services are available for essays, term papers, dissertations, coursework, reports, case studies, theses and research papers. Services are also available for science/math problems and multiple choice question sheets. A-Writer.com states that they are open to any assignment that may be required by the student, and whatever level of academia. This means that whether you are an undergraduate, high school student, associate or postgraduate, the services of A-Writer.com will be suitable for you and the level of quality available with be able to match with your needs and expectations. Two different levels of quality are provided (regular or premium), and turnaround times for some assignments are as little as 3 hours.

Customer Support

A-Writer wants all of their customers to feel comfortable when using their services. They make themselves available at all hours of the day, all days of the week to respond to any question or concern. If you have any pressing needs you can get in contact with the service via the toll-free number, or you can use the internet help center to get in contact.
When using a writing service for larger assignments such as dissertation chapters, it is very beneficial to be able to communicate and collaborate with the writer tasked to your case. This online customer area is the place to check to see how your assignment is progressing, and also to contact your writer. From the help center you and the writer can upload files and share materials.

Prices & Discounts

If we take an order that requests premium quality content, and an average turnaround time of 3 days, the price per page for an essay is $30.99 per page, for coursework $30.99 per page, for a thesis $42.99 and for editing $23.99. You can reduce the price by a wide margin if you select a longer deadline, and of course we would not recommend that you request something like a thesis for such a short turnaround time. Giving the researchers and writers an adequate amount of time to properly construct your assignment is always a good idea. New customers can make significant savings by entering a special code. Codes are advertised on the website, so all you have to do is enter this code when you place your order. The current discount is 25%, which is one of the largest first-time discounts offered by any writing service.

Delivery

Once your order is completed it will be delivered to you via the internet help center, and also by email. If there are things about your order that you are not totally happy with, A-Writer.com can make small changes and revisions completely free of charge. If there are any issues or delays, A-Writer.com states that you should get in contact and they will work quickly to solve the problem.

Special Offers

A-Writer.com offers a number of free extras when you place your order. A number of extras are currently being offered at special prices, including cheap proofreading. The service operates a customer loyalty program, which is beneficial for regular customers or for customers who need help with larger projects. If you place an order exceeding 15 pages, or have made a group of orders over time that collectively exceed 15 pages, you get a lifetime 5% discount. Lifetime 10% and 15% discounts are also available if you order over 51 or over 101 pages.

Quality & Guarantees

We love guarantees because they are the basis with which to complain and receive a refund on the occasion that the service does not meet your expectations. A-Writer.com offers plenty of guarantees and makes them very clear on their website. Naturally they guarantee not to plagiarize (they scan all work for plagiarism) and to deliver 100% original work only, but they also guarantee not to resell your work. There are some questionable writing services that sell the rights to the work they create – this often leads to plagiarism and can have very bad consequences for the customer. With this guarantee you can be sure that A-Writer.com does not engage in these dubious practices. A-Writer.com also guarantees to work by your instructions as closely as possible, and to use credible sources.
