

Bach Collegium San Diego's North County Series begins October 21!

Bach Collegium San Diego is excited to announce that for the first time, all its concerts will be performed both in central San Diego and at a North County venue, Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church in Cardiff-by-the-Sea.

"We have sought to present concerts in North County whenever possible," said Bach Collegium San Diego artistic director Ruben Valenzuela. "They are always well-received and sold out, or very close to it. Our North County audiences have been so supportive that we have always wanted to present an entire series there. When we discovered Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church as a venue, which is just superb both visually and acoustically, we were delighted to be able to present all our concerts there starting this season."

This season Bach Collegium San Diego celebrates 15 years as Southern California's foremost producer of historically informed concerts of early and Baroque music. The new North County Series begins with ACIS AND GALATEA, by G.F. Handel, on October 21, 2017.

The series continues with:

Handel's MESSIAH, December 20, 2017

SOUNDSCAPE: MUSICAL ARCHITECTS OF THE BAROQUE, March 3, 2018

WELCOME TO ALL THE PLEASURES!, May 12, 2018

Located at 3459 Manchester Avenue, Cardiff-By-The-Sea, Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church is a stunning example of contemporary Greek Orthodox church design, with a golden dome and ornately decorated iconography.

A complete release with details about the season is attached. Please let me know if you would like more information or to speak with artistic director Ruben Valenzuela.
