

Iwa's Magic Paddle

by Jerome Arkenberg (from "The Mythos of Polynesia in Dungeons & Dragons", Dragon Magazine #20. XP and GP values by DM Superelf.)

Iwa is a Master Thief, who has a magic paddle which can carry him in four strokes from one end of the Hawaiian Islands to the other.

(DM Superelf Note: In the Hawaiian Islands, this is almost like teleportation. In four strokes (one segment), the user can travel to any shoreline point. Elsewhere, this is merely a paddle that makes a canoe go extremely fast, provided the user keeps paddling. It will move a two-man canoe at a speed of 96", or roughly 112 miles/180 kilometers per hour. Said canoe typically holds 2 Medium-sized creatures and their carried items.)
