Alphabet Book The alphabet book is just like it sounds. You will need to have 26 pages (one for each letter) with each page being about an aspect of the state/province you chose.	Blog For this project you will need to create a blog about the state/province you chose. You will need to have an entry for each of the items on the rubric. A blog differs from the diary in that you will be required to use multimedia (videos, audio clips, etc.) that will be incorporated into the blog for full credit. Free blogs can be created at: www.blogger.com www.wordpress.com	Collage For the collage you will need to find pictures that represent the state/province you have chosen. Each picture should cover one of the areas found on the rubric (more than one if you wish). You will also need to provide a short written/typed description of each photo. The description can be on a separate sheet. For an easy webbased version try http://www.photovisi.com/
Diary For the Diary you will need to create an entry for each topic on the rubric as it pertains to your state/province. The more creative the entry, the higher the score.	Mural For this project you will need to create a mural that includes each of the elements in the rubric as they pertain to your state/province. The mural should be accompanied by written descriptions of what you placed in the mural.	Newscast For this project you will need to create a script for a newscast that covers the different elements of the rubric. The newscast will need also need to include the different segments found in a newscast (local news, weather, sports, "special segment", etc.). For extra credit you can film your newscast.
Newsletter For this project you will need to have an article for each of the areas for the rubric. Pictures are expected for full credit. http://www.docstoc.com/docs/62467566/Microsoft-Free-Newsletter-Template	Poster Board For this project you will need to create a poster board that includes all the elements shown in the rubric about the state/province you chose.	Powerpoint Presentation For this project you will need to create a powerpoint. Each slide should represent one of the rubric topics for the state/province you chose.
Scrapbooking For this project you will need to make a scrapbook. You will need to incorporate pictures and other items from the state/province you chose.	Storyboard For this project you will need to create a storyboard for a skit/play/show that features your state/province. You will need to include the elements from the rubric to get full credit.	Write A Test For this project you need to write a test. The test needs to include the elements of the rubric and needs to be about your chosen state/province. The test needs to consist of 15 multiple choice; 10 fill in the blank; and an essay question. You will also need to create an answer key.
Website For this project you need to create a website about your state/province. You will need to have a page for each of the elements of the rubric. Some free website sites include: http://www.weebly.com/ http://www.wikispaces.com/	Board Game Create a board game that includes all aspects of the rubric and is about your state/province.
