How Sweet the Sound:
Bless Your Heart
July 7, 2024

“…Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today.” – Luke 19:5

Success does _____ = mental happiness

People going after _____ are trying to _____ people to build their career, but people going after _____ use their career to _____ people.

If you _____ yourself from people then you _____ significance.

How will you measure your life?

_____ & _____ do not run on a parallel track.

Have you sat and wondered how your life matters?

Success is not a _____, it’s an _____.

_____ is not achievable when success is the destination.

A tax collector’s job was to _____ taxes and pay them to _____.

The Jews were not paying taxes to their _____ government.

Two important words from verse 5:

1. Zacchaeus – Jesus _____ his name!
2. Must – Jesus has to come to his _____.

There are some people who the only way they are going to _____ Jesus, is through ___.

The word _____ is only used 2 times in the New Testament, both in Luke and both times when Jesus ate with _____.

Zacchaeus gave away half his wealth and payed back anyone he cheated __ times. He realized that he hasn’t robbed an ox headed to slaughter, but a _____ that belongs to God. (Exodus 22:1).

Success gives the illusion that we are _____ over others. While significance gives the opportunity to see others as belonging to _____.

When you see Jesus for who ___ is, you begin to see _____ in a different light because you see _____ in a different light as well.

We need to change how we see people and see them as children of _____ and not _____ to get what we want.

Reflect on these questions this week:
- How do you measure your life (regardless of where you are in it)?
- What difference does it make in you feel needed?
- How can we as a church spread the news to people that God knows them and loves them?