Storytelling Round II: Your story about a loved one

Fill out each box and follow this order for your story speech!

- Describe your relationship with her father .

- Daddy's girl, "like the big brother I never had" (he was fun)
- SO mad, I would "wish my mother a happy father's day"
- BITTER, ANGRY

- Give some background about the person's story you are telling. Make them a vibrant, real character!

- Great car, charming
- Charismatic
 - "He could sell heaters in hell"
- Lost everything, lost himself
- Addicted to drugs, struggling, sad, lonely

- Dilemma/ Change (What happens?)

- He disappeared, struggled with drugs, and was not a supportive father.
- Felicia got mad, and hurt.
- Their relationship was non-existent.

- What is YOUR deeper understanding now? Bring it back to YOU! (So what?? How does this impact your relationship/ you?)

- She did some research... she thought about how she loves stories and wondered about HOW and WHY her father became the way he was..
- She learned all about his story .. and came to understand him better
- She appreciated all of what he went through.
- They repaired their relationship
