No tracing

No reposting art without crediting the artist, absolutely no NFT or A-I generating our work.

Work in progress photos/updates-. We love providing you with wips (work in progress) and you can always ask, please be advised it may not be a day-to-day situation for the progress of your art there may be days where there are no changes and we will let you know. All updates will be posted to Our Social media such as twitter so please refrain from asking about updates too much unless there is a concern about your commission, any concerns should be directly addressed to us via text message, or live chat on the FoxxorNetworks site.

Payment- Payment is determined by the amount of work agreed upon filling out our form, it is added up with each section.

Form: Please make sure you get all the information that is needed for your commission in the description of the forms, anything that is changed after agreeing on these forms will be charged extra afterwards. Use the form as listed (description is for any explanation in text, reference section is for any visual images you have, please keep it as minimal as possible, only what is necessary, no videos). Of course, have an idea ready and for certain it is what you want as a commission.

Quotes- Any quotes given to non buying customers will become void after two weeks and/or commission closing. If you are accepted your quote will be what you pay unless the buyer adds to their order.

Queues are treated differently as a prolonged list of waiting commissioners depending if there is a long wait, depending on the situation there may be a few months wait but does not happen often, Meaning this is a long list wait.

Refunds- Before resulting in forcing a refund, please contact us to see if we can resolve the issue, otherwise Forcing refunds will result in a permanent ban from All our services and possible legal action.

Canceling- If you have found that you no longer wish to continue with your commission and want to cancel please remember that if you have paid and we are passed the lineart stage (lineart already finished) half of the payment will be returned to you, if your artwork is already in the color stage the payment is %100 non refundable. This is NOT negotiable.

Making changes: We understand when making an artwork there may be a lot of altering if you do not like the result, please keep in mind this is what the sketch phase is for, please make sure the sketch stage is what you want before we colour!
