

CONTRAST

Contrast in art is created by having at least two of the elements of art (line, shape, color, value, texture, space and form) near enough to each other in a composition that they make a significant visual difference when compared to each other.

How does an artist create contrast?

Create a composition that shows contrast.