Experiential Learning Form

Supervising Instructor or Director Name: Liz HarpGraduate Student Under Supervision: Eliza ClarkPlease Describe the Student's Primary Responsibilities:

Help with choosing scientific articles for Reading to Learn assignments ("Help" does not fully convey the fact that she took the lead in each of these assignments, with guidance from me).

Record an instruction video for each Reading to Learn assignment (3x) guiding students through an example article to prepare them for analyzing the focus article for each Reading to Learn assignment.

Office hours 2x/week; attended each lecture, helping with student questions and activities as needed.

Grade short answer questions on quizzes and exams.

Delivered a guest research lecture when I was out with suspected Covid.

Please Comment Briefly on the Quality of the Student's Work:

Eliza was fantastic. She has a great work ethic and obviously cares about the students. As you can see from the description of her responsibilities above, she contributed quite a lot to the class, and was instrumental in fostering a culture of learning in and out of the classroom.
