

DEATHSTALKER INTELLIGENCE ARCHIVE

CASE FILE: 734-VO

COMPILATION DATE: February 21, 25

SUBJECT: Vorenas, Lucius (Alias: Rhobur, Lucius)

CODENAME: The Withered Oak

STATUS: Active Field Asset (Tier 3)

I. PSYCHOLOGICAL INFRASTRUCTURE: THE HUMUS BIAS

Subject 734-VO exhibits a pathological fixation on a self-imposed philosophy known as "The Humus (HYOO-mas)." The subject eschews traditional Forsaken concepts like nihilism, devotion to the Dark Lady, or even the need for cold hearted revenge.

734-VO posits that true authority doesn't reside in a crown, but in the cycle of organic decay and reproduction found on the forest floor.

Subject 734-VO identifies itself with components in this cycle: primarily as dead matter. Its only purpose, to rot, decay, and serve as the foundation for the future. This begets an abnormal preservation of pre-mortum military/self discipline, sense of honor, and rejection of Undercity environs for more "natural" scenes like forested knolls of rich verdant swards.

II. BEHAVIORAL ANOMALIES

- Bifurcation of Identity: Subject utilizes a split personality identified as "Rhobur," to execute "pruning" operations (assassination, tactical gardening, and resource acquisition). Use of the beta personality (Rhobur) allows for the alpha identity(Vorenas) to manifest itself and remain untainted by such tasks as required of a Deathstalker. Also allows the subject to delude itself into believing it maintains a semblance of honor. At this time there is no information available as to which personality is dominant.

Use of alpha/beta terms is strictly for identification purposes as of February 21, 2026

- The Phantom Stirrup: Subject retains the psychological profile of a Winged Hussar (Heavy Cavalry). Despite intentional actions taken by its superiors to deploy the subject as a common foot-based Pathfinder/Infiltrator. In doing so its handlers intend on cleansing this Phantom Stirrup personality trait. The subject expresses acute irritation and frustration regarding his lack of mount. Views its current state of Pathfinding on foot as a degradation of his status. Phantom Stirrup Anomaly reinforces the bifurcated identity and misplaced sense of honor.
 - Moral Inconsistency: Subject frequently performs seemingly "random" acts of decency, such as returning of relics or burying of remains, over operational efficiency. It claims that such acts are required to stabilize the land and the "Humus" beneath the surface

III. OPERATIONAL VOLITILITIES:

- Personal Search: Subject is actively searching for an old colleague. Expends valuable time and other Forsaken resources investigating the whereabouts of Captain Cathad Dibbs (13th Legion).
 - The Yuriv Variable: Subject is examining the feasibility of the branding of Commander Yuriv as a "Betrayed." Any revelation contradicting the subject's internal "Code of Honor" proposes significant risk for asset flight and/or defection at the time of this writing.

IV. HIGH-PRIORITY PERSONS OF INTEREST

Dibbs, Cathad - Captain of the Thirteenth Heavy Cavalry. Disappeared after the Third War. Current whereabouts, unknown.

Oriskany, Murtaugh - Former private in Thirteenth Legion Heavy Cavalry. Stayed behind in Lordaeron after the Third War. Current status, Lieutenant in the Lordaeron Remnants.

Yuriv, Dimitry - Former Commander of Thirteenth Legion Heavy Cavalry (Hussars) and a Paladin of the Light. Current status, unknown.

V. ASSESSMENT AND RECOMMENDATION

Assessment: Subject 734-VO is a stable, high-utility asset provided he is handled with clinical indifference. Do not attempt to deconstruct the "Humus" ideology; it is the structural integrity holding the consciousness together.

Recommendation: Frame all objectives as "Necessary Maintenance of the Realm." Allow the Subject his repetitive "sewing" behaviors to mitigate battle-shakes. Monitor all interactions involving the 13th Legion. He is a soldier who serves the foundation, not the wind; as long as the foundation remains, he remains.
