Mr. Rogers

trogers@ascentclassical.org

Course Description

Students will be studying music theory, music history, and performance practices of music. Throughout this course students will be expected to sing, play instruments, participate in school concerts and complete worksheets.

Classroom Rules

1. Respect yourself
2. Respect others
3. Respect the classroom and equipment

Arrival/Dismissal Routine

Will follow classroom procedures

Bathroom and Water

Will follow classroom procedures

Concert Attendance

Music is both a written and performance based class. Due to this, students are expected to attend and participate in all rehearsals and performances. Concert dates are announced at the beginning of the school year. If a student is not able to make a performance please email Mr. Rogers at least one week before the performance. Absences, including potential ones, (ex. playoff games) that are not communicated and approved by Mr. Rogers by this time will result in a zero for their concert grade.

Excused absences include, but are not limited to; family emergency, illness of the student, or school approved academic or athletic conflicts. Absences that are excused will be subject to a make-up assignment if deemed necessary by Mr. Rogers. Please email Mr. Rogers on concert day to discuss a make-up time for their concert performance. If no email is received that day it will be counted as a zero.

Concert Attire

Students will wear their formal school uniform for all school related events, concerts, and performances unless told otherwise.

Concerts and Performances

This year our 1st Grade Winter concert will be December 11th 8am- 8:20am

Our Spring Concert will be May 13th, 8am-8:20am

Discipline

In music class students will be moving, playing instruments, reading, and writing. If students are not respecting themselves, others, and/or the classroom and equipment they will be held accountable in the following ways:

1st offense is You and Me:

- The student will receive their first warning either verbally or non verbally from Mr. Rogers. Upon the warning being issued it is their responsibility to correct their behavior.

2nd offense is You, Me, and Parent

- A student will be notified of their second warning either verbally or visually. The student will then be pulled aside after class and talk to Mr. Rogers about their behavior and the consequences of their actions. An email will also be sent home to the parent that day and a yellow slip may be given.

3rd offense: You, Parents, Admin

- A student will be notified of their third warning and be sent down to the headmaster's office with an office referral to discuss their behavior. An email will be sent from the admin discussing their behavior and any consequences that they have received.

*Depending on the severity of the offense an office referral may be given without any warning. Examples of this are fighting, causing harm to another student, and throwing or breaking items purposely. It will be up to Mr. Roger's discretion if an office referral is given before the 3rd offense.

Communication and Tutoring

I can be reached at my email address and will get back to you within a 48 hour period.

Religion

In music class we will be singing and playing a variety of music from around the world. In music class, especially during winter time, it is common to play songs that may reflect different religions. We are studying these pieces for the purpose of learning and not for a religious purpose.
