Kensington & Area Chamber of Commerce - Membership Code of Conduct

As a Member of the Kensington & Area Chamber of Commerce, I/we recognize that membership is a privilege and that a membership brings with it the responsibility to assure that all members understand and commit to the following membership undertaking.

The code of conduct shall, without limitation, require members to:

- * Conduct business and professional activities in a reputable manner so as to reflect honourably upon the business community
- * Respect the reputation, profile and status of the Kensington & Area Chamber of Commerce, and represent the Chamber accordingly
- * Understand, support and promote the Kensington & Area Chamber of Commerce
- * Cooperate with fellow members in the application of this Code of Conduct
- * Whenever reasonably possible, participate in the functions and activities of the Chamber
- * Promote the enhancement of business growth within Kensington and area;
- * Observe the highest standards of ethics in rendering services and/or offering products for sale, based on the members own knowledge and expertise
- * Refrain from engaging in any practices prohibited by law or seeking unfair advantage over fellow members
- * Refrain from publicly criticizing the business practices of fellow members and refrain from condoning or engaging in unethical practices.

I/we also understand that the failure to adhere to the professional and personal obligations of the Kensington & Area Chamber of Commerce, as outlined above, can result in the termination of my/our membership.

Based on the above Code of Conduct, I, Craig Enman, Owner/Manager of Arch-Tech-Designs, know of no reason why I should not be accepted as a member of the Kensington & Area Chamber of Commerce.
