Terms of Service and General Commission Info

Introduction

Hello! Thank you for wanting to commission me! I'm Suede, a self-taught, non-binary artist in the furry community.

I'm very passionate about character design, illustration, and self discovery in art, and want to put that passion towards your character and their narrative. I want to meet your needs to the best of my abilities, and I like to think myself very open minded to any themes and topics you'd like me to explore. However, there are some things I reserve the right to deny working on. I want to channel your vision and ideas with respect, and will try my best to do so without compromising on my personal values. Scroll to the bottom for a general list of things I enjoy or avoid working on!

By commissioning me, you accept and agree to my TOS as follows:

Notes on Pricing and Payment

- I usually accept payment through Paypal. You may request alternatives.
- I accept payment upfront. If a discussed price is above my usual rates, I can accept payment in installments (Work always turn out better if paid in full, in advance, to better plan workflow and time management)
- I will ONLY offer refunds for pending work in my queue in the case of financial emergencies or other extreme extenuating circumstances.
- Cancellations and refunds are not available once I have started work on your piece.

Contact and Communication

- Once I have an idea of what your fursona looks like, and your vision for the piece, I will confirm that your idea is a good fit for me, and collect payment.
- I will only start working AFTER I have received payment.
- I will ask for all relevant reference material that you think is important. (Character reference sheets, stick figure sketches, inspirations, music you want me to keep in mind, whatever you think would help me get into your headspace)
- While I work on your piece, I will do my best to send you updates as I work, usually starting with a sketch to give you an idea what I'm working with, and where I want to take the vision. This is the best time to request changes, or make clear certain things I am missing. The earlier I can make these edits, the better, so please don't hold out!
- Don't be afraid to ask for updates! On request I will do my best to send screenshots of what I'm doing.
- My turnaround time can vary, as I like to work horizontally through my queue and will sometimes be working on multiple projects at once. If there is a hard deadline for your piece, LET ME KNOW so that I can prioritize getting it done by then.
- If you are a minor, please do not contact me. My prices and work (even SFW pieces) center on a lot of an adult perspective. Come back in a few years, champ.

Completed Commissions

- Client will receive a high-res PNG with signature. Alternate versions are available on request (i.e. without signature, transparent background, Wallpaper aspect ratio crop (if applicable) etc.)
- Client can request smaller changes for . Larger and more labor intensive changes will be priced on request. (If i made a mistake, you gotta let me know as soon as you see it.)
- I will keep the commissioner anonymous upon request.

Image Rights

- Client by default reserves all rights to their fursona/character.
- I reserve the right to use the commission for use in my portfolio, or in promoting myself.
- I reserve the right to recreate or iterate on the commission for sales and advertising.
- Unless explicitly discussed as part of the initial commission process, the client has no right to resell or use my work for commercial purposes.
- If the client would like to retain full, exclusive image rights, for me to never edit, sell, iterate on, or publish the image anywhere, then it must be purchased on top of the final commission price. This should be discussed upon order of the commission, and must be discussed BEFORE completion of the commission.

Subjects That I Enjoy

I love to work on a lot of things, but here's a quick list of things I excel at or would really love to work around.

- Fashion/character design
- Capturing a particular mood
- NSFW pieces
- Kinky themes (Macro, foot/paw focus, musk, hyper, etc. If you are unsure please ask!)

Subjects That I Avoid

Here is a list of things I prefer not to work with. If you have any questions, again, please don't be afraid to ask! Understanding and nuance are important, and the worst i'll ever say is "no."

- Underage Characters
- Ageplay
- Racist, bigoted, or fascist imagery or symbols.
- Work glorifying police (see above.)
- Violent/senseless death (Gore/blood/death are fine, but i prefer some artistic nuance to it)
- Fecal scat.
- Porn involving Real Life People.
- Porn of non-fiction characters the client does not know personally.
- Porn of characters without the owner's consent.
- Sexual elements outside of my tastes. (just ask!)
