CUBE DASH Instructions

As Streamers hack-n-slash their way through the new season of Torchlight, they will find mystical cubes [Cube of Rapacity] along the way. After defeating monsters called the Desire Incarnation, they can Interact with the cubes to claim rewards including the drop of potential puzzle pieces [Divinity Slates]. Streamers will have to collect puzzle pieces to complete a 3 x 4 rectangular pattern in the new talent board [Statue of The New God]. The winner is the first streamer to complete this puzzle pattern.

- Statue of The New God: The New God has bestowed upon Hunters a fresh Talent Panel—Statue of The New God, it is also the fourth Talent Panel that you can unlock (at lv.32) in the new season. Unlike previous Talent Panels, Hunters can now combine and place multiple Divinity Slates (puzzle pieces) on the Statue of The New God, granting them potent buffs.
- Divinity Slate: Upon unlocking the Statue of The New God Talent Panel, you will also unlock the drop of Divinity Slates. Divinity Slate is one of the rewards in the Cube of Rapacity, which is the only way to obtain Divinity Slate in the early stages.
- Cube of Rapacity: Hunters will encounter a new monster called the Desire Incarnation that comes with the Cube of Rapacity during the Main Story and Netherrealm stages. After defeating these special monsters, you will obtain an item called the "Desire Crystal," which cannot be taken out of the map. After defeating the final boss of the stage, the Cube of Rapacity will appear, for which you can offer a certain number of Desire Crystals to draw random rewards from it. However, you must be careful not to anger the Cube of Rapacity due to greed, or you will lose all accumulated rewards in this round.

Streamers just need to fill the red box with Divinity Slates
