

Project Rubric

Judging Criteria:

- Must contain a working demo of product
- Presentation must not exceed 5 minutes

	5	4	3	2	1
Idea How thoughtful is the end goal? Does this idea have potential?	Unique and Creative! - Opens new doors for future innovation - Fully addresses and answers the prompt/problem - Provides outlook and complexity of the issue by looking at multiple scenarios	Adequate - Provides a logical and thoughtful approach to the issue - Presents a solution that may already commonly exist - Fully satisfies the prompt and provides a general idea of the project's future	Okay - Provides a solution that falls short of actual practicality - Does not fully address the prompt - Does not provide future outlook on the project	Poor - Strays from the prompt or misinterprets its essential issue - Provides a solution that is not sustainable or is faulty	Inadequate - Strays far from the prompt - Does not provide a solution - Idea is unrelated and generic
Implementation How well did they implement their solution? Is it practical, efficient, and sustainable?	Efficient and Clean! - Product fully resembles the solution - Code is efficient and easily understandable - Project has a working demo	Complete - Product somewhat resembles the solution - Project seems free of major bugs or faults - Project has a working demo	Decent - Product is incomplete, yet resembles the solution somewhat - Code is messy and unorganized - Project has a working demo	Lacking... - Product is incomplete and does not resemble the solution - Code is sloppy and repetitive - Project as a whole is impractical	Incomplete - No product - No demo - Impractical and unsustainable
Presentation How well did this group deliver their product? How much effort was spent?	Stunning! - Group had a strong performance overall - Teamwork of each team member is clear and equitable - All points were well-made and transitioned well	Good - Group was able to get through their presentation with little mishaps - Structure could have been improved - Teamwork did occur, but was unclear	Okay - Presentation was lackluster or fails to capture the project as a whole - Delivery was unemphatic	Boring... - Group had a lack of flair in presentation - Presentation fails to get to the point or strays from the product	Nonexistent - Group did not have a presentation - Presentation was completely unrelated