

Hello Friends,

I just wanted to follow up on last month's kick off presentation. Let's start with my Ravelry Bundle which can be found here. Just add me, BeckyS, as a friend so that you can check for updates. If you prefer to find your own scrappy projects, I suggest you use "scrap", "scrappy", "stash2go", and perhaps "advent", or "countdown" as your search terms.

I also mentioned Ann Budd as a source of inspiration. She has several books that hit all the projects, in all the gauges, in many sizes.

Keep your scrappy donations coming! I will have labeled bags for your small balls of leftovers at each meeting. Once we have a bagful, you will have the opportunity to take some for your projects.

Finally, do not forget that the Guild will raffle off a copy of Laine's 52 Weeks of Scraps to a lucky winner. Be sure to see Becky to add one entry for EACH scrappy item you complete before the May 2026 meeting. The more you make, the better your odds! Cannot wait to win the book? Head over to Have Ewe Any Wool and let Ben know you are a member for special pricing on this amazing pattern collection.

Good luck, and Happy Scrappy Knitting!
Becky
