6. Event Report : yes
The Department of English and Languages at St. Mary's College, Yousufguda, hosted a vibrant celebration of Arabic culture on 29th October 2024. Students set up informative stalls covering various aspects, including the evolution of the Arabic language, its influence on other languages, and the rich culture and hospitality of Arabs. The poetry and calligraphy displays added a creative touch; while a competition allowed students to learn to write their names in Arabic. At the end of the program the Hod of the department Mr. D Sai Kiran distributed the prizes to the winners.
The event was beautifully adorned with Arabic-style decorations, making it a memorable experience for all involved

Brochure/Circular: Arabic Culture Day: 29 November 2024

A vertical brochure for Arabic Culture Day. The background is white with a repeating pattern of light blue Arabic calligraphy. At the top center is the St. Mary's College logo, a shield with a cross and a book. Below it, the text 'ST. MARY'S COLLEGE' is written in a serif font. Underneath is 'DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH AND LANGUAGES' in a bold, sans-serif font. The word 'Celebrates' is in a script font. The main title 'Arabic Culture' is in a large, bold, serif font. Below it, 'From Letters to Legacy' is in a script font. A decorative flourish separates the title from the event details. The details are: 'Language|Evolution|Culture', 'Calligraphy Competition', and 'Learn to write your name in Arabic and compete!'. Another decorative flourish follows. The date, time, and venue are listed in bold, sans-serif font: 'Date: 29th October 2024', 'Time: 2PM', and 'Venue: Cafeteria'. At the bottom, contact information for the Faculty Coordinator and Student Coordinator is provided in a small, sans-serif font.
