

The mission and central purpose of this organisation is the complete liberation of all humankind from exploitation, poverty and discrimination, based on class, race, gender, sexuality, religion or lack thereof, ethnicity, disability or any other means of dividing people. United we stand! We call for an end to this abhorrent immoral system, capitalism. That since its inception has left a trail of want, exploitation, division, hunger, poverty, corruption, hate, death and disease in its wake. Harming no one more than the workers who are forced to carry the entire system on their backs by the sweat of their brow, and the toil undertaken by the hands and the brains of the gaping majority of the world. Being whipped onward into oblivion by a tiny minority, who have never had to work a day in their lives generally speaking and take whatever they feel like from those who put it there.

We call for an end to the class system wherein by virtue of birth dumb luck or lack thereof a person may spend their days being waited on hand and foot and wanting for nothing, or may be born into abject soul crushing poverty or may be born with the sole purpose of labouring constantly to prop up this abhorrent unjust farce of a system, the second and third circumstance of birth not being mutually exclusive, far from it.

No longer!

How many more of us must spend our lives unfulfilled with the sole purpose of breaking our backs and our minds to keep the upper classes in the luxury they have grown accustomed to?

No longer!

How many more of us must die in wars so that the upper classes can expand their bank balances, sell more guns and and steal ever more resources from your brothers and sisters abroad?

No longer!

How many more of our children will die of hunger or suffer malnourishment so the upper classes can make ever more trading life giving food and water as commodities to be bought and sold?

No longer!

How many more of us will be incarcerated, silenced, tortured, demonised and made to fear our neighbours irrationally so that the upper classes can maintain their position, get reelected, and invade every facet of our private lives unimpeded?

No longer!

For without the fostering of these divisions the many may no longer fear the few,
For without keeping us all scrambling for resources and competing for our daily bread we may stop and question why.

For without a common foreign enemy to fight and die over, we may realise we dont have nearly as much in common with these leeches as each other

For if they didn't keep us slaving away we might question what exactly these do nothings have done to deserve the fruits of our labour and the resources of the earth we are all standing on equally.

We stand for real freedom, equality, solidarity and security not merely the pie in the sky mythical illusion of it.

We stand for a world where the fruits of your labour are yours

We stand for a world where every living person has a right to basic respect and dignity

We stand for a world where everyone has equal access to the resources of this world, a world where your freedom and your needs are not a privilege, but a right!

We believe in the universal right to life giving resources: Water, adequate nutrition, heat, clean air, a clean environment, shelter, adequate clothing, hygiene, health care, safety and companionship regardless of race, gender, religion, income, sexuality or any other factors

We believe in the right to freedom of or from religion

We believe in the right to defend yourself and your family, friends, and neighbours from violence or oppression.

We believe in freedom of unimpeded movement

We believe in freedom of assembly and protest

We believe in freedom from discrimination

We believe in freedom from hate speech

We believe in freedom from violence

We believe in freedom from oppression

We believe in the right to human and animal companionship

We believe in freedom from wage slavery, slavery and all other forms of exploitation.

We believe in maximum human freedom and freedom of choice, as long as it does not infringe upon the rights of others

We believe you have the responsibility not to prevent others from accessing life giving resources, damage, pollute or destroy these resources maliciously or through greed or negligence

We believe you have the responsibility not to impose your religion or lack thereof on others or discriminate against others on the basis of their religion or yours.

We believe you have the responsibility not to commit violence towards others unless you are defending yourself or others, or freeing yourself or others from oppression.

We believe you have the responsibility not to oppress others on any basis.

We believe you have the responsibility not to impede the movement of others

We believe you have the responsibility to treat your human and animal companions with dignity, respect and love. We believe you have the responsibility to make sure your human and animal companions are adequately cared for and not subject to violence or abuse.

We believe you have the responsibility not to exploit, enslave, or extract surplus value from others

Our goals are to work towards this world tirelessly and together as a unit and not just to campaign and talk about it, but to take direct action to bring this brave new world to a reality.

We plan to aid all people of every creed and kind in securing income, housing, food, resources and all that is required for a good quality of life.

We pledge to aid all people in obtaining freedom from exploitation, discrimination and oppression in all its forms.

We will provide real material help when and where we can but we also believe that those we help have the responsibility to aid others when and if they can.

It is our absolute goal to irradiate this oppressive system we live under and replace it with a better fairer, equal and free system.

We have little to lose and the world to win!

Membership of our organisation requires only that you are human, not an employer, from a rural area or living in a rural area and donate 80 hours community service or work internally within the organisation per year at a minimum. There are no fees, contribution is on a voluntary basis. You may be exempt from work requirements under certain circumstances such as ill health, infirmity, bereavement, maternity, paternity, disability, incarceration and others at which point it is a case of do what you can, if you can. You can also substitute work for contribution to be set annually.

Employers may join under the sole condition that they cooperate fully with us in cooperativising their business. This may appeal to some.

Small farmers, students, retirees, social welfare recipients, home makers and all manner of workers including freelancers and those on "self employment" contracts as well as sole traders (who may benefit from enlargement by joining up with other sole traders to form cooperatives aided by us and in a spirit of cooperation) are all free and welcome to join, on the stipulation that all members do not contribute to exploitation of others through the extraction of surplus value from others, some quarter must be given to those who are currently engaged in exploitation who are or have changed their ways, however small in numbers.

The organisation will be governed through independent local chapters, putting forward delegates, a regional organiser in each state/province selected through popular vote from amongst the delegates who are also selected through popular vote.

Each regional organiser will have a seat on a central council headed up by a national chairperson who is selected by popular vote from amongst the regional organisers and has a seat on an international council headed up by a chairperson selected by the popular vote from amongst the national chair persons by the national chair persons so that countries with large populations are not unfairly prioritised, and you cannot vote for yourself.

In addition there will be several regional and national officers with seats on national and regional councils presiding over various issues and departments.

All local chapters will be almost completely autonomous and capable of operating without central leadership should central leadership ever be compromised or in any other circumstance should this be required without any extra measures having to be taken.

Further elaboration on titles, terms of office, procedure and teams along with defined goals will be provided in the run up to the leadership elections 6 months from now.

Amendments after this point can be motioned and voted for at any point.

Now is the time to seize your dreams, and no longer beg and grovel with your oppressors for the privilege of freedom, but seize it as your right of birth to stand together shoulder to shoulder as brothers and sisters in humanity!

In freedom, equality and comradeship!
