

RCLI Fellowship Curriculum Team

The RCLI Fellowship is a 9-month leadership development experience that examines civic issues through a faith lens. We are assembling a Curriculum Team to help shape and refine this impactful experience for emerging leaders in metro Richmond.

Purpose:

The Curriculum Team will provide valuable insight and expertise to support the executive director and team chair in crafting an engaging and impactful curriculum for the Fellowship. Members will play a vital role in:

- Reviewing and offering feedback on curriculum content
- Suggesting resources, speakers, and venues
- Identifying gaps and opportunities for improvement
- Ensuring a balanced, thoughtful approach to faith and civic leadership topics

Commitment:

- Monthly meetings, February - September
- Quarterly meetings during the 9-month Fellowship

All meetings will be held in the morning or over lunch and may be virtual or in person.*

Ideal Members:

We seek individuals with expertise in civic leadership, faith-based education, teaching, community engagement, or related fields. A passion for mentoring emerging leaders and a collaborative spirit are essential.

Impact:

Your contributions will help equip Christian leaders to connect their faith to civic engagement, inspiring positive transformation in metro Richmond.
