

For homework, have your parent or guardian fill out whatever columns they remember about you as a child.

Names:
Smell
Clothing or feeling
Sound
Hot or cold
Chips or cupcake
Force your children to eat

Answer the following questions below:

1)Have you ever considered before how different people interact with the physical world?

2)How does this help you understand both your own psychological preferences and the people around you?