Robinson Crusoe
Chapter 1 – Family

My name is Robinson. I am from England. I am eighteen years old. My father is German.

My mother is English. I have two brothers. I have one sister. We are a good family. My father is a good businessman. [...] I have a good school. I have a good life. But I have a dream. I want to travel. I want to see the world. [...]

It is morning. My father is in his room. He wants to speak with me. I go to his room. My father has some questions.

My father wants to know why I want to travel. My father says, "Travelling is dangerous. Travelling is not comfortable. [...]"

I think about it. Travelling is dangerous. It is not comfortable. [...] But it is also very interesting. I can see new countries. I can meet new people.

I think about travelling every day. Maybe my mother can help me.

I speak with my mother. I tell my mother, "I want to travel. I want to see the world. Please, speak with my father. Maybe with your help, I can travel."

My mother loves me. But she thinks that travelling is dangerous. She thinks that my place is at home. [...]

One year later, I visit one big town. The name of this town is Hull.

I meet my friend. His father has a ship. They travel to London. My friend tells me, "Go with me."

I think about it. I am not prepared. But I can try if travelling is for me.

I go to London. I am very happy. It is my first long journey. It is very interesting. The first hour is good. But then we have problems. We see a storm. The storm is big.

The wind is strong. The ship goes up and down. I have fear. I think about my home. I think about my comfortable bed. The storm is finished in the morning. The weather is nice. And the evening is beautiful. Everything is quiet. [...]

The Rose That Grew From Concrete

Did you hear about the rose that grew from a crack in the concrete?

Proving nature's law is wrong it learned to walk with out having feet.

Funny it seems, but by keeping its dreams,
it learned to breathe fresh air.

Long live the rose that grew from concrete when no one else ever cared.
