

VISIBILITY BRIGADE™

RUSH HOUR RESISTANCE

Bucks County PA

Yardley Indivisible seeks to help germinate other like-minded community groups.

To that end, this past July 2025, we helped organize a new activist group -- Visibility Brigade Bucks County.

Visibility Brigade is a national grassroots movement born in 2020 in Paramus, NJ to bring urgent, pro-democracy messages into public view—literally. Small teams of like-minded folks dedicate just 60 to 90 minutes a week to display bold, high-impact signage on pedestrian overpasses to spark awareness, inspire civic action, and provide hope to concerned citizens.

The approach is simple, safe, and scalable—there are already two teams up and running in our area! Through consistent action, strategic messaging, and social media amplification, the Brigade builds public momentum and reminds Americans what our country stands for and the need for all of us to be brave and speak out.

You can find Visibility Brigade Bucks County on Facebook: Visibility Brigade Bucks County PA

Want to sign up?

START HERE: JOIN VISIBILITY BRIGADE BUCKS COUNTY

