

G2 W12 Homework

202 / 203 / 204

Name: _____

ID#: _____

r-Controlled Vowels ar, or, ore, oar

An r-controlled vowel changes the vowel sound in a word. The letters ar stand for the sound you hear in the word far. The letters or, ore, and oar stand for the sound you hear in the word score.

1. Circle the r-controlled vowels

1. I push the cart at the store.
2. The teacher put a mark on my paper.
3. We plant flowers in the garden.
4. The lion lets out a loud roar.
5. He tore the paper by accident.

2. Write your own r-controlled vowels

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

3. Sentence Construction

Use 3 words from exercise 2 to make sentences.

1. _____.
2. _____.
3. _____.

What are contractions?

A contraction is a word that you make when you put two words together. You drop one or more letters and put an apostrophe in place of the missing letter or letters.

do + not = don't

Circle the Contractions

Circle the contraction in each sentence.

1. I'm going to the park.
2. She's my best friend.
3. We can't find the ball.
4. He isn't eating his lunch now.
5. They'll play outside after they finish their homework.

Decode the Contractions

Write the two words that make up each contraction.

1. She'll  _____
2. I'll  _____
3. Aren't  _____
4. Isn't  _____
5. He'll  _____

Complete the Sentence

Choose the correct contractions to finish the sentence.

1. I _____ see my book. (can't/isn't)
2. _____ a sunny day. (It's/Can't)
3. _____ be our English teacher today. (Aren't/He'll)
4. Those _____ our books. (he'll/aren't)