Violent Attack, Assault, and threats, to Protected Persons under International Law

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

As a direct descendant of the founders of the Constitution for the United States of America and as one of "the Posterity" found in the preamble, by right of blood, I hereby declare;

I have reason to believe and do believe that Edgar Hurtado, Euless Police Sargeant #357 made a violent attack upon the Demandant and threatened, arrested, and imprisoned a Protected Person under International Law in violation of title 18 United States Code § 112 Protection of Foreign Officials, Official Guests, and Internationally Protected Persons

(a) Whoever assaults, strikes, wounds, imprisons, or offers violence to a foreign official, official guest, or internationally protected person or makes any other violent attack upon the person or liberty of such person, or, if likely to endanger his person or liberty, makes a violent attack upon his official premises, private accommodation, or means of transport or attempts to commit any of the foregoing shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. Whoever in the commission of any such act uses a deadly or dangerous weapon, or inflicts bodily injury, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

(b)Whoever willfully—

(1) intimidates, coerces, threatens, or harasses a foreign official or an official guest or obstructs a foreign official in the performance of his duties;

(2) attempts to intimidate, coerce, threaten, or harass a foreign official or an official guest or obstruct a foreign official in the performance of his duties; or

(3)within the United States and within one hundred feet of any building or premises in whole or in part owned, used, or occupied for official business or for diplomatic, consular, or residential purposes by—

(A) a foreign government, including such use as a mission to an international organization;

(B) an international organization;

(C) a foreign official; or

(D) an official guest;

congregates with two or more other persons with intent to violate any other provision of this section; shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

(c) For the purpose of this section “foreign government”, “foreign official”, “internationally protected person”, “international organization”, “national of the United States”, and “official guest” shall have the same meanings as those provided in section 1116(b) of this title.

(d) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed or applied so as to abridge the exercise of rights guaranteed under the first amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

(e) If the victim of an offense under subsection (a) is an internationally protected person outside the United States, the United States may exercise jurisdiction over the offense if (1) the victim is a representative, officer, employee, or agent of the United States, (2) an offender is a national of the United States, or (3) an offender is afterwards found in the United States. As used in this subsection, the United States includes all areas under the jurisdiction of the United States including any of the places within the provisions of sections 5 and 7 of this title and section 46501(2) of title 49.

(f) In the course of enforcement of subsection (a) and any other sections prohibiting a conspiracy or attempt to violate subsection (a), the Attorney General may request assistance from any Federal, State, or local agency, including the Army, Navy, and Air Force, any statute, rule, or regulation to the contrary, notwithstanding. 18 USC 112 Protection of foreign officials, official guests, and internationally protected persons and 18 USC § 11 defines a foreign government as a government, faction, or body of insurgents irrespective of recognition

The term “foreign government”, as used in this title except in sections 112, 878, 970, 1116, and 1201, includes any government, faction, or body of insurgents within a country with which the United States is at peace, irrespective of recognition by the United States. 18 USC § 11 Foreign Government Defined and 18 USC § 112 uses definitions found in 18 USC § 1116(b) and under paragraph (b)(2) the Republic of Texas does NOT need your recognition

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) “Family” includes (a) a spouse, parent, brother or sister, child, or person to whom the foreign official or internationally protected person stands in loco parentis, or (b) any other person living in his household and related to the foreign official or internationally protected person by blood or marriage.

(2) “Foreign government” means the government of a foreign country, irrespective of recognition by the United States.

(3) “Foreign official” means—

(A) a Chief of State or the political equivalent, President, Vice President, Prime Minister, Ambassador, Foreign Minister, or other officer of Cabinet rank or above of a foreign government or the chief executive officer of an international organization, or any person who has previously served in such capacity, and any member of his family, while in the United States; and

(B) any person of a foreign nationality who is duly notified to the United States as an officer or employee of a foreign government or international organization, and who is in the United States on official business, and any member of his family whose presence in the United States is in connection with the presence of such officer or employee.

(4) “Internationally protected person” means—

(A) a Chief of State or the political equivalent, head of government, or Foreign Minister whenever such person is in a country other than his own and any member of his family accompanying him; or

(B) any other representative, officer, employee, or agent of the United States Government, a foreign government, or international organization who at the time and place concerned is entitled pursuant to international law to special protection against attack upon his person, freedom, or dignity, and any member of his family then forming part of his household.

(5) “International organization” means a public international organization designated as such pursuant to section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act (22 U.S.C. 288) or a public organization created pursuant to treaty or other agreement under international law as an instrument through or by which two or more foreign governments engage in some aspect of their conduct of international affairs.

(6) “Official guest” means a citizen or national of a foreign country present in the United States as an official guest of the Government of the United States pursuant to designation as such by the Secretary of State.

(7) "National of the United States" has the meaning prescribed in section 101(a)(22) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(22)). 18 USC 1116(b) Murder or manslaughter of foreign officials, official guests, or internationally protected persons when he and Timothy Graham stopped the Demandant for having a Republic of Texas plate on his automobile and the Demandant presented his Republic of Texas Diplomatic Identification card, because the Demandant is a Senator for District 13, was previously speaker of the House of Representatives and a Charge de Affairs, as evidenced by the copy of the Commission, as evidenced in the Euless Police Department Narrative. The Demandant dialed 9-1-1 and demanded the Tarrant County Sheriff to the scene and the call went to the Euless switchboard and Graham's supervisors Sgt Hurtado #357, and Collingwood #626, came to scene as his accomplices, and as evidenced by the police narrative, and the Tarrant County Sheriff refused to come to the scene. The Demandant read to Graham, Hurtado, and Collingwood, parts of Texas Penal Code 39.03 telling them they were engaged in Official Oppression. They are all required to know that the Euless military Police are not authorized to enforce the Texas Transportation Code as evidenced by the email from the Tarrant County Sheriff Public Information Officer, a true copies of the Police Narrative and the email from the Tarrant County Sheriff Public Information Officer are attached hereto, all of each of which are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety.
