

House Seeris

Welcome to House Seeris, a large and rather wealthy Great House that has survived the rough politics of Luthadel. Of course, politics is one thing, but the idea of Skaa trying to sabotage your House from within? The very idea is absurd! Why, in some cases, you've known each other all your lives! How dare he suggest that such an esteemed House would betray The Lord Ruler's laws like that!

But then, it's always good to have an excuse to trim the competition down a little...

Pick your colours below, but remember that black is reserved for the GM! For that matter, feel free to change the title to your House's Colours, if you can agree on one.

Members of House Seeris:

Sylinia Seeris (Theorymaker) [Starting House Lady]

Jain Phantomhive (Lightsworn Panda)

Cadri Raisaal (Shivertongue)

TelZaan (Kandra)

Yes, I got my color! Also, hello. Apparently I'm the leader here though I think Shiv is more experienced than me and Jain is probably more experienced than me also by a game or two. (Why was I picked again)?

House Leaders are picked at random.

Well that makes sense (nice W btw as your picture). A Cormorant. What is that? Some bird? Yeah, I did the same thing. (diving bird) What am I? (Hopes for something good). I've heard of that still have no clue what it is. Google Help! Those things are awesome! (I google imaged it). Oh, that's what a Wooper is... I don't always use a female character my last two were guys actually. I only picked a female Game 5 because they are the only ones who can write on Roshar. It didn't offend me. It was an honest question.

Hey everyone. Shotgunned Blue! What animal am I? Google to the rescue! Yep, it's a bird. Err... It's an axolotl... Theoy, why do you (sorry, didn't mean always) use a female character? I keep thinking of you as a woman... >.>. Sorry if that offended you.

W? Also, thanks, a friend drew it for me an age ago :)

Oh look! A Kandra in our House!

That'd be me :P. Originally the Kandra were going to be called BinNuut and GemPiil, as tribute to the players who couldn't make it and will be in the Speculation Doc, but we had more players sign up, so we no longer needed both.

Yeah, I should stop talking in just one block shouldn't I?

Generally it helps to have a few lines at the bottom to let people type at the same time.

Sorry, I've only been in a dead doc when no one else was there so I don't know doc rules.

Made em.

Allo allo

Hello.

Shiv, I've made my text green since our colors are so similar.

Gah, no no... Ash used that same shade in the DF doc last game, and it's such a strain on my eyes X__x

MWAHAHA SUFFER! (Fine, changed it)

:P

And people think that there's plotting happening in these docs :)

Well, should there not be? Maybe it's best that they think that's happening.

Yeah, well guys it's time to plot... our House colors. :P (Nevermind it's only you and me in here)

Should be someone else, but they're probably just idle.

Yeah, I saw that crow yesterday too, it might be Shiv.

Quite possibly. But don't let the lack of people stop you plotting, by all means.

As I see it there are too many possible plans to just plot by myself. I'll wait for others.

Fair enough then.

I'll always be here, always idle unless not idle. And if there is an extra person here, it means I'm here on my laptop as well.

And that person is the FANTASTIC PANDA! (cough) Very modest. Much humble.

Are both of you guys on (alligator and (very) happy frog) but both idle?

No, the alligator ran away! Well, I do have something really important to say whenever you guys get on.-Theory

Jain, you're a Kraken. That's awesome.

YEAH!

So, I finally caught one of you guys on here. People are accusing Shiv in thread by the way, so hopefully he comes on. So, Jain do you have some ability to injure another player. You don't have to name it I'm just wondering because I have the House power Weaponry and I can't use it on myself. (I just typed a paragraph, sorry).

No. I can't kill or injure. I can, however, help in injuring/killing

Well, that sounds confusing (Like a coppercloud or something? Don't name it, just let me puzzle it out). Let's hope Shiv has a power to injure otherwise I'll have to give the power elsewhere.

Hello, happy frog :)

Accused already? Better post something, then...

No, don't leave! You just came.

Tabs. I can do both. :P

Good. Same question applies to you can you injure/kill people?

Can you?

No, unfortunately (that's why I'm looking to give the power to others). Oh, no the cursor ran away!

Give the power?

Weaponry, the House power. Yeah, I wrote it in the long paragraph up there.

Oh, I should look at that...

Oh, two tabs=two cursors, wierd.

No.... oh, if you have the doc open in two tabs, then yeah. I have the doc and the site, which is what I was referring to before.

Well, the frog cursor is still here and now you have a beaver one too. Windrunner Syndrome I guess. Just don't make a third one. You fixed it.

Okay, so... we have to determine if we're going to trust each other.

I trust you guys why should I stop?

'cause there could be skaa. I'm not skaa, but you only have my word on that. You or Jain could be for all I know right now.

So what I'm thinking is, leap of faith. We can trust each other until one of us gives a reason not to trust. There is likely a lot of distrust going on in all of the docs, since the skaa are potentially in any one of them. Let's buck the trend.

Makes sense. If I don't trust you guys who can I talk to :)

Yes, exactly. So full disclosure. I'm a Coinshot.

Ah, so you want the Weaponry power. (Also if we do have a Skaa in here don't kill your own House members kill others).

Yes, if we do have a skaa, I'm sure we can work out a deal to kill the other houses over our own house.

This was my original plan if I ended up in a Minor House. Team up with everybody to take down a Major House. Well, I ended up in a Major House so now I have no plan.

Plans, schmlans. We planned on a cycle-by-cycle basis in the DF doc last game. Long term plans are too easily disrupted. Play the short game. Unless a really good plan for a long-term strategy comes to mind, it's the most logical thing to do. I think.

Okay, does it matter if people know the members of our House (I have no clue how to phrase this) What I'm trying to say is should we be pulling an Evil thing by voting for each other to dissociate with each other or I don't know. (Don't make me do the strategizing).

When did we get House colors? (I just noticed them).

I just put them in :P

PYTHON!

Python, Monty python :)

What am I?

You are still the Beaver.

Ah, okay. So... got any allomancy?

Oh, yeah I do. Sorry I was reading in thread. Yes, I have Pewter (don't test that out).

Where did you go? Why do you leave whenever I say something important? Just don't spy on me Kaos Agent 93!

Still here, just not always looking at the doc :P

Okay, I got really worried there for a moment. Well, good night.

Hello mysterious fox person... oh wait, that's just me on my laptop.

Woah woah woah! We have Weaponry? GRR WORST TIME NOT TO BE AN OFFENSIVE ROLE!

Well, since you two revealed your roles, and I do have to eventually trust someone, Allow me to announce my Metal.

Wait, no, I won't.

Wait, I will. ARGH NEVERMIND
IM A SEEKER MWAHAHA!

Not very impressive.

If there is a Skaa here, do us a favor and don't kill us. It sucks to leave the game early, and our House isn't really that awesome.

It's really boring to be on Team Good 4 GAMES STRAIGHT

Rightyo, what shall we do?

Hmm... trying to determine if it's safe to reach out to another house...Or one person in another house... Important, I think, so start building alliances and finding who we can trust.

OK, easy things first. What shall we do with our Metals? Who will Shiv (you) shoot? Who will I Seek?

Don't know yet. We have Weaponry, which means I can kill.

Should we go and kill the Head of a House? Or someone who isn't?

Too early to say right now. We haven't even reached the night cycle yet.

It's always good to plan early :)

Aye, sometimes. I prefer to plan when we have more information than we do now...

Don't mind this, just sorting things out...

House Tuy	House Elarie Genealogy	House Urbain Metal Poisoning	House Seeris Weaponry, Broad Investment
Asyr Tuy (a smart guy) Coinshot	Quitania Elariel (QC) Rioter	Fein Urbain (Gamma)	Sylina Seeris (Theorymaker) Pewterarm
	Cat Lekal (luckat)	Ren Garde (Renegade)	Jain (Panda) Seeker
	Hadrian Penrod (Araris Valerin		Cadri (Shiv) Coinshot
////////////////////	////////////////////		TelZaan (kandra)

3 in Elariel, 3 in Tuy, 4 in Urbain. 10 total. Remaining 6 spread between 3 lesser Houses.

1. Kassel Erikell (Kasimir) Lurcher 2. Tonul Venture (Tulir) Rioter? 3. Alden Izenry (Aonar Faileas) Soother 4. Jain Phantomhive (Lightsworn Panda) 5. Hyrun Tormander (The Only Joe) 6. Ashette Cett (Ashiok) Thug? 7. Hadrian Penrod (Araris Valerian) 8. Kaldin Fathvell (Kal Dell)	10. Wandrin Nuvidas (New One) 11. Racine Morinthe (twelfthrooftwo) Tineye 12. Cadri Raisaal (Shivertongue) 13. Mesist A'lees (Metacognition) 14. Mailu Willen (Mailliw73) 15. Ren Gardre (Renegade) 16. Jae Kastner (jaelre) Rioter? 17. Cat Lekal (luckat)

(Mimes upvote)

Walrus? You there?

Aye. You there, Wolverine? (the Beaver is me on my desktop)

Shiver has multiple cyber clones! I'm a Wolverine? Wait... not sure anymore...

Right to get plotting started. I reckon we should go for one of the smaller houses if possible, since we want to exterminate them before they exterminate us. If I was in a small house, I would go for one of the larger houses. Also, while our house head is a Pewter burner, he's still vulnerable from multiple attacks. Let's try to stay inconspicuous.

Aye, although I think first priority should be skaa. But, eliminating smaller houses will make narrowing things down faster.

Hmm... so who do you reckon I should seek? How about one of the Large House heads? That way, we know if they're protected or not, or if they burn Pewter.

Mmm... leave the house heads alone for now, I think... Don't know who they have designated as Heirs, and at this stage it's better to know who is wielding the house power

Yes, but I do get to know what sort of Metals they have. If someone is covering them with Iron, or Smoking them, I also know. And since they're House heads, they're more likely to be covered. 2 birds with 1 stone.

The heads are more likely, then, to be protected. Logically, it makes more sense in that case to removing the non-heads, thus removing potential smokers/lurchers that could be protecting others...

Right now, I'm just trying to gauge a house up on their Metal users. Information is never too early :P

Too early, I think. Not enough information to go by. Don't want to waste opening moves. We have Weaponry, I have Steel. We could kill someone outright tonight. Is Weaponry the only House Power we have? Also, do you have any metals? I forgot.

I think so. Maybe you could coordinate with Theory and have the Kandra eat someone's bones!

That would be hilarious. You know what, just do that. We, can after all, succeed in it.

xD Aye. Have to ensure someone dies at night, then.

Allo Wyrms.

Hmm... Someone that could die at night and not be missed too much in the battle against the skaa...

Hey Wyrms

Ideally, we get lucky and kill a skaa.

Roll a dice then. I'll roll.

Allo allo allo, what's all this then?

Kal's the (un)lucky victim. Rolled a dice three times, subtracted the second from the first and added the third to the result. 6,2,2. Kal happens to be the eighth player.

My dice pulled Ash as the vic. Couldn't hurt removing someone who tends to be very random... Isn't $6-2+2=6$? And that won't exactly give you a fair result, considering you're most likely to hit the 3.5th player...

...I just rolled a d20 and got 6. None of that fancy maths for me. d20s work much better.

Glad I decided to check on the PM thing, 'cause I almost sent out about a dozen feelers last night.

Yeah, I would've frowned at that for certain :P. Very, very different to your previous game in that sense. I think it's good to have restricted PMs in some games, since people were relying on it rather heavily last time. It worked for them, certainly, but perhaps it makes things a little too easy. Amusingly, weakening the Tineye ability actually kind of makes it stronger.

Agree completely. I've been considering completely removing PMs (save for those sent to the GM) from the game I'm working on. Also not sure if I want to go that direction, though... I kind of want to keep them, but I also want to keep people from relying on them or retreating to them too much. Of course, the nature of the game I'm working on gives me a really fun reason/way to remove the capability for PMs rather suddenly...

I've heard tales of this mythical game, but nothing concrete. I am rather curious, I'll admit :P. PMs are useful, certainly. But I don't think they should be a staple feature of our games, or at least blanket PMing shouldn't be.

If you like, I can give you the link to the in-progress doc for it. I always welcome more feedback. Sure.

I'll post the link here, then delete it after you're in. xD

I'm in, secure the link!

xD

WHAT IS THAT!?

Abort abort! You realize that I can undo that and rejoin it, right? No, I haven't done that. Eh, wouldn't be a big deal if you did. :P

Why did I not think of using a 20-sided die!? Ash it is, then.

Unless he ends up getting voted off during the day.

In which case Kal gets the wrong end of the stick.

Wow, I missed a lot. Yes, we have one other House Power, Broad Investment (using other House powers). But not knowing what other Houses have makes that one difficult.

Just so you know, you do not have to use House Powers that are within the game for Broad Investments. They are all viable once.

Wait, really? That's actually really nice. Now for plans.

It's meant to be the Mistborn of House Powers, sort of thing. Diversity, but not consistency. And it'd be a bit cruel on the others if I had to tell you which House Powers were in the game or were not, but didn't tell the others.

Yeah, I get your point it would be House Seeker powers plus Mistborn. Oh, I just realized if everyone upvotes enough of your game posts you'll make it to the Top 50.

I know. I just want to reassure people, I am not GMing for the Rep. Nope. Not at all. (Kas and I definitely didn't spend some time figuring out how many Cycles this game needs to last for for me to become an Inquisitor either >>).

:) I'll have to remember to not ask him then.

I think the game has to end on Night 20, or something like that. Wait, no... 191? I think it's Night 191. Yeah, misplaced a digit.

Oh. Well, you can do multiple games right?

Planning on it. Anyway, I'm off to see a man about rearing overgrown, winged lizards. See you later.

Um, goodbye. Winged lizards... I knew genetics was advancing, but how far I had no clue.

So, guys if you don't mind my plan for this night is to talk to the informant. Seeing how this is the first night there will be barely any lies in it, so the best/most true information we will get is tonight. (Yes, that was my major plotting for today).

Evening all.

I know Shiv is on the forums, but I don't think he's here. Anyways good evening. Darn it, he left. Now you left too.

I'm here, just flittering between tabs a lot.

Oh, good. Well I'm leaving, goodbye.

Oh, so we have broad investments, hey? GMing does wonders to your rep, it seems. I don't want to be displaced as the 48th most upvoted person! XD

Yeah, Shiv is on (17th Shard). Now if he could just check in on this... and Shiv did not find my hidden message either.

Nah, I saw it.... no I didn't.

What hidden message? I checked all your posts for white text.

Heyo Wyrn. Who's the Ibex?

I see no ibex here. I have an orangutan, a beaver and a shrew.

It wasn't important. I was just bored so I said Happy Frog tune in to your House Doc. Because you were a frog before you were the Beaver. (In post #89).

I am rather amused by this method of referring to people.

Yeah, Jain is the Kraken, and I should come up with a fake third one so no one figures out I have the Kandra. Yeah, it's kind of lonely here. My information idea was good at least, I think.

Ah, damn. Was catching up on the posts today, then saw "Thread will be closed in an hour and ten minutes!". Quickly skipped to the end so I could retract my vote for Meta... and just missed the window.

Night 1 has begun!

Yay. Time to plan our actions before I go on camp and my suicidal brother takes over. Hey Beaver. Who's the turtle?

Hello, I'm the Turtle, and you're the Racoon.

I just got demoted from a Kraken into a racoon... Right, Night Plans! Any suggestions?

Target for Shiv kill: Ash

Target for Jain to seek:

Target for Kandra: Ash

Well, I did like my Informant idea, but if Shiv agrees that killing people is the way to go I guess I could endorse it. (I really like my Info plan though. The Chart above is so empty...) Ok, now I'm confused, who's the Manatee?

No idea... Well, killing someone is pretty useful, since we do have a kandra who can take the place of the person we killed.

But info and... I don't know we can argue about it later. In other news, who do you want to seek? Darn it, he left. And came back as a Mink.

I'M A MINK!?

The Kandra gives you information about Ash's fellows, and if he's a Skaa, he's Skaa friends.

Yes, I'll have to ask Wurm about it, because I think it might use up my House power every night for the info which might not help. Maybe I read the rules wrong I don't know.

It uses up your Specialization action, but that's it. I think - once it's consumed a body - it doesn't need an action to use.

Yeah, that's what I meant by House power, oh so it would actually be helpful then. Ok, can you talk to the Informant then (I still like info).

Yup. And funny :P. Yep. About what? What fact shall I disclose?

Mailliw and Renegade would be two targets I would recommend for the Informant but you can pick your own targets if you want.

Mmm... kay. You've probably seen my heads-up about my brother taking over. I hope he isn't erratic.

Yeah, has he done something like this before?

Nop. He's watched all the games, though.

Well, everyone has to start somewhere.

Yeah. I reckon we should discuss who I should seek. I'll choose a House Lord.

I would say pick Asyr Tur (I changed my mind, sorry), but again the final decision is yours.

Sure. So the Plans have been finalised then. Sure again.

Shiv shoots Ash, you order the Kandra to devour his (soul) bones, and I seek Smart.

MWAHAHA YOUR SOUL IS MINE! (cough) XD

Sorry, bones just wasn't evil enough. It might be creepy to add in the write-up though.

That would be awesome! :P

Nah, some Mortal Kombat won't hurt anyone. :D

Oh, I've never played Mortal Kombat.

Oh, you don't need to. In the (Incredibly bad) movie of Mortal Kombat, there's a famous quote (which I think came from the game): "Your soul is mine". It was so monumentously bad, it was made into a meme.

Ah, the meme war creeps into even the games (no where is safe).

Sorry, that's unintended. Did you know you're a moose?

Yeah, I accidentally closed the tab and got a new animal. I'll miss that turtle.

You look like Rudolph now XD.

I don't know how to react to that. Well, pretending that I'm not Rudolph, what do you think Shiv's doing? (I'm pretty sure he's the Manatee and the Beaver - the Beaver is me on my desktop). I was typing up my night actions and realized that Superior Weaponry for a coinshot is pretty much steelpushing an anvil or something. I think we have everything figured out, so good night. I'm not so certain about a kill action, right now... Kills in the night cycle won't reveal alignment, so we won't know anything other than that player being dead. Although if we do use the Kandra, it could give US some specific benefit... I wish there was a way to signal to a Tineye that they should request a PM with one of us.... But then, we don't know if we can trust the Tineye..

I think more important than a kill right now IS information. I want to fill that chart out. However, I also think someone should make a kill action, and I like the idea of it being me. So, I could shoot Ash, and make an information-gathering action. I think that's all I would be able to do. Does using a House Power count as a House Lord's action?

I think so. The Kandra can tell us quite a lot of information, and Ash is pretty erratic.

So the actions are agreed upon?

I think so. Even if Ash isn't skaa, it really can't hurt to remove an erratic player. I don't completely believe he's innocent, anyway. Gut feeling.

So, kill Ash with Steel Weaponry, Kandra his bones, information actions through an informant... and you're seeking someone?

Yep. Asyr. Double the info if someone tries to cover him, or maybe even triple if someone attacks him.

Good, good....Just gotta decide who I'm gonna get info on tonight...

Just pointing out, Kandra Actions take place before Kill Actions. So if someone dies on this Night, their body will be available during Night 2.

Mmm, okay. So slight delay in that. No big.

Note that this means that if the previous House Lord dies during a night where a Kandra will report, since they report to the old House Lord, the new House Lord will not get that information.

There's a delay so less of a rush to make plans for the night, though I think our plans are finalized.

Hello, it's Lightsworn's erratic brother here. I've just read the doc. And yes, I am erratic, and I won't be online as much.

Since I'm that erratic, and my brother is away for 4 days (Though he arrive at night so around 5 days) I will official rename myself as Jain Phantomhive, Jain Phantomhive's brother. (Made a post on it)

Also, what animal am I?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ap6kSV_U45o

Have a guess :P

Just might be a Kraken. :) But why need the link? Just might start a meme war. :P

Well, I never miss an opportunity to link someone to something.

Ah well. Let me explain myself. I have only seen Game 5, Quick Fix 3 and this game. The other games I've only seen a tiny bit. I am two years younger than my brother.

Who's the Hyena? Is it you Shiv?

The frog is probably Shivertongue, since he idles here. You can't see yourself up at the top, and you're definitely a walrus.

Then who is the Frog? He's been idling for a while. I hope its not a random guy who wandered on. I said the frog.

As I say, it's probably Shiv. ...Yeah?

Most likely, yes.

Yup, Shiv the Frog. ...Which would probably get animal rights activists on you.

Hehe... how long until cycle is over?

Just over 12 hours. It's 8:47 AM here.

Oh, good. I thought I was up against the clock.

Nope, not quite.

Well, orders in anyway. Now I don't have to worry about a sudden power outage messing things up...

Be a shame if something like that happened again.

That was a shitty week. Two tornados and four power outages.

Oh, ouch.

No tornadoes here. Just cold and wet.

Anybody there? Does Shiv idle for this long? Please don't ditch me. I'm new to this!

Shiv is always logged in from the desktop. Shiv is sometimes logged in from the laptop.

Shiv also talks in third person sometimes.

Well, it's night here so good night.

Yes, Shiv is still the happy frog.

Day 2 has begun!

So, I'm thinking that either a Lurcher protected Ash or the more likely answer that he burned Pewter to survive Shiv's attack. I also added Cat's name to the Chart.

We got hit by a Blanket Sooth.

I'm thinking that I trust you guys. Asyr used Steel last night. Nothing was used on him though.

Huh, a Blanket Sooth. Now why did they pick us? Also finding out that Asyr burns Steel is very useful because I was attacked last night, and I don't know how many Coinshots there are but now he is high on my list of suspects.

Steel is all contaminated now... lovely... It almost feels planned. Sooth me, poison me, can't do jack shit until next night cycle... I woke up slightly cranky. These developments didn't help.

I'm sorry that you lost your power, but at least you can use your special power still.

...special power?

Metal and special (I've stopped calling it house power. A better term might be second power, basically the none metal stuff)

Only the leader of the House can choose to use the House powers. I have no access to them.

I was talking about Informants and yeah I think that's the only option.

Oh. Yeah, I did that. Aonar is a Soother, Urbain has Metal Poisoning.

Oh, he's the one who did that!

Possibly. Don't know if anyone else has it.

Two people having the same House power seems unlikely, but maybe (thanks I forgot to make more lines). So, I have to go now, but I'll talk to you later (supper)

What about the Informants? I got rioted? Ah well. At least they think I'm a Copper burner.

For my informant I know that Renegade is in House Urbien.

I added info from in the thread to the Chart, but I also put question marks by them because they might not be reliable. Also, Jain, did you get any info on Mailliw?

Sorry, just woke up. Yes I did. He is in the same house as Hyrun. And Tonul admitted that he rioted me. Yay! Promoted! But still not a kraken or a nyan cat. :(

Shiv is still the happy frog. You're the Orangutan.

Thanks for the info so a small house then. Also you're a Tiger! I don't think he'll ever stop being a frog. Darn it, I'm never a good animal.

Who should I seek next? I'm thinking Gamma. I just woke up here. When's night 2 going to start? 12 hours? Wait, what day is it where you live? It's Monday here 8:29 am. Yeah, and I do have school and some other stuff so I won't be on for the next 12 hours or so. This is my brother's laptop, remember, and I can't really bring it to school. We've still got a whole day. I'll try not to forget. Me too. I think Shiv will be around when I come back. Bye.

Okay, that sounds fine. You don't have to do it so early (it's not even night yet) unless you want to. I think in about 9 hours on Monday. Today's Sunday at 5:29 pm. So 15 hour difference then. I guess you could send in your actions early then. Yes, I guess you could do it later too then, it's up to you. Okay, I have to go eat supper now, so goodbye.

So with Jain's info and Ash's confession in thread should we make smaller charts for the Minor Houses, or does that not matter enough?

Well, I'm back for a second, and because both you live anyway but Australia, I'll say that we should, and wait for a reply tomorrow morning. Ashiok must have burned pewter to survive the shot. YAY MUSICS! :)

I just started reading last night's posts, and went '...really? really?'

Where you live then? Ok. Gotta go. Read above while I'm gone.

South-East of Britain.

Hey Wyrn, are you only in our doc or are you in every other doc? And also, I sent you PMs for Night 3.

I am in every doc (which gets painful at certain times, trying to keep up)

Ok. That's kinda a pain. Sure.

It's okay. Anyway, gotta go. Back in around... Seven hours?

When is Shiv gonna come around? He's always that happy frog. Let me guess: Third tornado this week

Is Jain still on because there's a panda there and it would be awesome if it was Jain.

Anyway here's my theory, Fien Urbain is a Mistborn. There were three Coinshots last night which I think might be too many. We know Shiv was blocked, Racine was hit, and I got hit also. That's the main reason why I'm pursuing Asyr right now, I want to know if he shot me or not.

Anyway Asyr hit either me or Racine meaning a third Coinshot is out there. The fact that Fien poisoned Steel makes me think he used it, as a Mistborn, then realized he wouldn't get it again so poisoned it for all the Coinshots the next night. I don't really have any proof but that is my assumption. So apparently Asyr shot Meta meaning there were FOUR people using Steel last night. So one of them has to be a Mistborn otherwise there are twice as many Coinshots than anything else. Also Aonar and Racine are in the same House apparently.

Night 2 has begun!

Wow, we actually found a Skaa already.

Good morn'n

Yeah they're amazing!

Good morning. Have you seen the results today? I know they're awesome!

Maybe Wyrn made it too easy with the informants. I'm still waiting for a coinshot to die. By the way, you're still the monkey. Mistborns could have used steel last night and maybe another tonight. I still don't like the fact that Aonar is accusing me of not using my Informant last night and how I could be a Skaa.

If the informants were too easy we would have caught more Skaa. Don't kill Shiv! And darn well monkeys are okay, better than orangutans.

I do feel that, on balance, I agree with Lightsworn's brother currently. But that's just from the first cycle. Things can, and often do, change.

Yeah, now there are lies and certain truths available only. Also Steel is poisoned they probs don't want to kill anyone that bad. You could just tell him your info to prove you talked to the Informant.

Well I think this is the question for Wyrn. Did you tell him info from yourself or from my info? For the info you gave Aonar. Oh yeah, Shiv is finally not a happy frog. 'K. I hate how he was accusing me. He's probably gonna ask info on me tonight. Since they think I burn copper, I might be able to pin a blame down.

Sorry? What are you asking me? I can't tell you what info Aonar received, if any.

Oh and should we build a chart for the lesser houses? Me too.

Maybe, I'm pretty new to Google Docs so I wouldn't know how to make a chart. It's probably under the Table tab, and you found it.

How about that? Ashiok said that he was with Tonul. Tonul admitted it. Gonna have to go. See you tomorrow morning. Bye!

Did he say semi-great? Because that would be one of the above ones. He said minor. Yes, but how reliable is he? Ok, bye.

House #1	House #2	House Morinthe
Hyrun Tormander	Ashette Cett Coinshot	Racine Morinthe
Maliu Willen	Tonul Venture Rioter	Alden Izenny Soother

An extension has been declared.

Oh, a Penguin and a Grizzly (Shiv gets all the cool animals)!

Wait, it was glitching on my screen.

Day 3 has begun! And sadly, we must say goodbye to here :(

Oh no! The happy frog died!

Thanks, now I need to grab something to clean my desk. Making me laugh while drinking >>

But he is! And for some reason Theory is hardly online. Ah well. Bye!

Shiv died! NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!!!!! It's so lonely without Shiv constantly logged in :(

If it helps, I'm constantly logged in for ~2/3rds of the day.

WHAT HAS MY BROTHER DONE!?!?

I think he was RPing as Lightsworn Panda? :P

Night 3 has begun!

Day 4 has begun!

You are now alone, Jain, I am sorry to say.

Oh dear sweet... My brother is taking over now. Harmony help you all.

Well, maybe he can't do too much damage?

Yes I can! YAYZ!!!!!!!!!!

Oh dear...

Night 4 has begun!

Day 5 has begun!

I'm back, Wyrn. That should be the last hiatus.

Cool. Welcome back. And goodbye.
