

Paradox Opera Voice Lesson Scholarship Guidelines

Overview: Paradox Opera is committed to making quality vocal instruction accessible to dedicated students who may face financial barriers. The Paradox Opera Voice Lesson Scholarship provides full or partial coverage of lesson fees with any of our PXO-approved teachers.

Eligibility:

- Open to students of all ages and experience levels who demonstrate a commitment to vocal study.
- Applicants must express financial need.
- Students must already have been working with a teacher from Paradox Opera's list of approved instructors for at least 3 months (exceptions may be considered on a case by case basis)

Scholarship Details:

- Scholarships are awarded on a 1-6 month basis. Scholarship funded lessons are not eligible for make-up lessons if studio cancellation policies are not followed. (Scheduling policies will vary based on teacher)
- Students may re-apply as many times as needed.
- Awards may cover full or partial lesson costs, depending on available funding and individual circumstances.
- Students who receive partial funding will still receive an invoice from their individual lessons teacher reflecting the discounted rate, Paradox Opera will subsidise the rest.

Application Process:

- Applicants must complete the scholarship application form.
- A short statement of intent (detailing musical goals and financial need) is required.
- Teacher recommendation may be requested.
- Applications will be reviewed by the Paradox Opera Scholarship Committee and awarded on a rolling basis.

Expectations for Recipients:

- Maintain consistent attendance for lessons.
- Show dedication to vocal development and practice.
- Participate in occasional performance or outreach fundraiser opportunities as available.

Renewal & Re-Application:

- Scholarship recipients must submit a renewal application if seeking continued support.
- Progress evaluations may be required for renewal consideration.

For more information or to apply, please visit www.paradoxopera.org or contact us at paradoxopera@gmail.com.