

Associate Editor Opening at Restoration: Studies in Literature and Culture, 1660-1700

Restoration is looking for an Associate Editor to join Editors Dr. Laura Rosenthal and Dr. Erin Keating and Book Review Editor Dr. Stephen Watkins. The journal is published twice per year and, on average, includes 3-4 articles per issue, as well as book reviews. When possible, the issue also includes a select bibliography of recent work called "Some Current Publications." The Associate Editor assists with the review process for submitted manuscripts, makes publication recommendations (in concert with the Editors), and assists in the processes of copyediting and proofreading.

We invite letters of interest from scholars possessing a PhD in Literature, History, or a related humanities area at any career stage. Please send a message of inquiry and a CV to the editors at restorationjournal@umd.edu. For best consideration, please contact us no later than Friday, September 5.

For more information, please check out the journal's webpage (<https://blog.umd.edu/restorationstudiesjournal/>) and/or check out a few of our past issues on Project Muse and JSTOR. If you have any questions, contact Dr. Erin Keating at erin.keating@umanitoba.ca.