

Articles IV, V, VI, VII of the Constitution

Aim: How does Article IV, V, V, VII establish different aspects of government?

Do Now: Identify the 3 branches of government and what each branch does.

Article I	Article II	Article III
Branch:	Branch:	Branch:
Role:	Role:	Role:

Slide Presentation: The Constitution

Assignment: Use the Constitution outline to answer the following questions.

Article IV: Relations Among the States

1. What must each state honor?
2. How are your rights impacted from state to state?
3. What is extradition?
4. What authority does Congress have in regards to the states?
5. What is every state guaranteed?

Article V: The Amendment Process

6. What are two different ways to propose an Amendment?
7. What percent or fraction of states are needed to ratify an amendment?

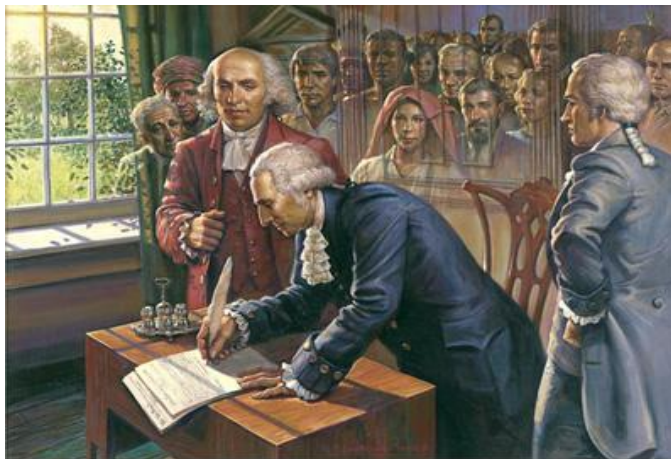

Article VI: Supremacy of the National Government

8. What is considered the supreme law of the land?
9. What is required of every government office holder?

Article VII: Ratification

10. How many states were required for the ratification of the Constitution?

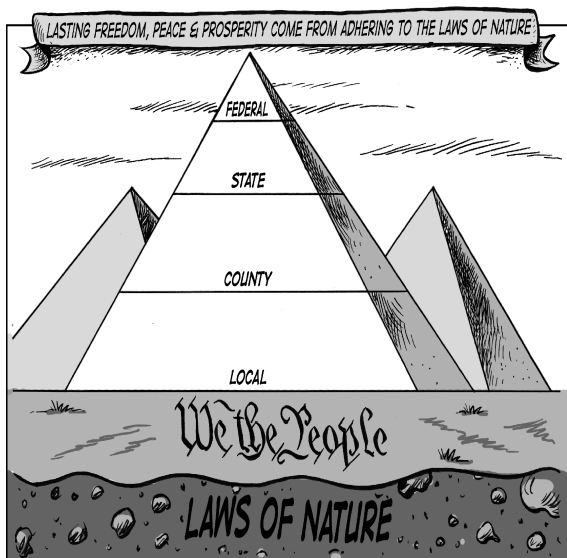

Review: Identify which Article and clause of the Constitution applies to each image below.

Article:

Article:

Article:

Article: