

Model Creative Writing Memoir

about the importance of words to you

TASK

Write a memoir piece that resembles elements of writing from multiple authors' pieces studied this unit and focuses on:

the value of reading, learning to read or write, or interpreting the world through language and chosen words

PLANNING

Create a scaffolding plan using this doc for planning that includes your focus for the piece and the rhetorical techniques you plan to use in the writing.

RUBRIC

- Established focus for this writing & strong development and organization of the piece itself, with attention paid to overall connections and fluency of ideas (+10)
- Clarity of writer's voice through intentional diction, figurative language and syntax choices throughout this piece (+15)
- Key provided of identified techniques [intentional diction, effective figurative language, remarkable syntax, powerful purpose] that are also used by chosen authors as indicated on the plan, with these parts labeled and underlined/ highlighted on the final draft—explanation given in editing comments (added in by you) in further detail for how this technique is used by you and what it adds to the writing/why it is effective (+20)
- Grammar, mechanics, usage are considered— careful proofreading is evident (+5)