INT. DANCE STUDIO - DAY

DIRECTOR watches as DANCER finishes routine to classical musical. The piece finishes. The director clasps his hands together and motions off screen to AV NERD.

DIRECTOR

Excellent. We're close. Let's reset let's go again right away.

DANCER walks up to DIRECTOR

DANCER

Director, could we take a quick break, I've got to...uh use the facilities.

DIRECTOR

Can it wait?

DANCER

Uh. Well, I sort of been waiting this last three run-thrus.

DIRECTOR looks at watch and sighs.

DIRECTOR

Let's just run this one more time and we'll take 15 after, k?

DANCER nods reluctantly.

DANCER

Ok.

DIRECTOR

Now, get to one. Everyone, reset to one. Music ready? Ok. And, 5-6-7-8.

DANCER takes place in very uncomfortable position. DIRECTOR snaps in time and points at AV NERD to start the music. Instead of the music starting an ad comes on.

PANDORA

Hey, we're glad you like Pandora as much as we do! Remember upgrading to the Pro plan gets you all the music you want without the ads. Now back to your Pandora station!

DIRECTOR

Alright, sorry 'bout that, 5-6-7-8

DANCER is still in awkward first position beginning to sweat. DIRECTOR snaps in time.

PANDORA

Whoa! I'm thirsty, mom.

-Here's a tall glass of ice water

(sound of water being poured into a glass)

Just when it seems like the glass would be filled up, the sound continues longer filling up the largest glass of water in history.

DIRECTOR

Sorry again, guys - thought the promo was the ad. This will be done in a second

DANCER is sweating trying not to listen to the water being poured but also awaiting his queue.

PANDORA

I've never seen a glass that big!

-That's cuz their new. Here's another for your friend.

Thanks, mom!

-Thanks to SplashXL, I can finally make sure my kids get the hydration they need.

Thanks, Ms. Clemmons

-And their friends too (laughing)

(boys to each other) let's pour our cups into each other! Yay!

Narrator: SplashXL, glasses...only larger

DIRECTOR

Ok, and 5-6-7-8

PANDORA

(sound of water rushing) Waterfalls. Artesian wells. Flowing rivers. Come to Upstate New York to see, feel, and splash in them all.

DIRECTOR

Really? Three ads? How are you holding up?

DANCER is on the verge of total disaster.

DANCER

(abruptly)

I'm fine. Let's just get this over with-

DIRECTOR

(to AV Nerd)

Hey, can we fast forward this? Well have you tried?

DANCER

No. Just let it pla-

PANDORA

(restarts ad)

(sound of water rushing) Waterfalls. Artesian wells. Flowing rivers. Come to Upstate New York to see, feel, and splash in them all.

DIRECTOR

Let's just let it go...and 5,6,7,8

Classical music starts for a hot second then a phone ring interrupts it.

DIRECTOR

(to AV Nerd)

C'mon...ignore the call.

After the second ring, it abruptly stops and the classical music resumes. DANCER starts doing ballet that is very bladder bursting until the emergency broadcast noise hits

PANDORA

There is a severe flood watch in effect for the next three hours

Just then a scream is heard. A stream of fluid hits the Director in the face. He turns into it and his mouth opens as the stream of fluid flows into it. He chokes and drowns as the Pandora classical music plays.

BLACKOUT.
