

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy “Privacy Policy” contains important information regarding our Application (“Application”, “us,” “our,” or “we”), and how and why we collect, store, use, and share your personal information. It also explains your rights in relation to your personal information and how to contact us or supervisory authorities in the event you have a complaint.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully before using our mobile application and related services and all publicly available websites and subdomains provided by us.

By using the Application, you consent to the collection, transfer, process, storage, disclosure, and use of your information as described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with this Privacy Policy, then please do not use the Application.

This Privacy Policy may change from time to time. Your continued use of the Application after we revise this Privacy Policy means you accept those changes, so please check the Privacy Policy periodically for updates.

1. SCOPE OF PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy is part of the Terms of Service for the Application and includes any separate privacy notices and/or notices posted on particular pages of the Application that may provide more detail regarding the information we collect on those pages, why we need that information, and choices you may have about the ways we use that information. No matter where your information is collected, used, transferred or stored, if it was collected through the Application, it will be subject to the terms of this Privacy Policy.

2. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We may collect and use the following personal information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular consumer:

- Information provided to us directly by you; and
- Information collected automatically when you use the Application.

Information You Provide To Us Directly

When you download, register with, or use this Application, we may ask that you provide:

- Your SNS Nickname and SNS Profile image when you register for an account and provide information to link to a social media account.
- Information that you provide for your user profile (e.g., Introduction(bio), Profile image, etc.).
- User Content (e.g., photos, facial scans, comments, and other materials) that you post to the Application.
- Information you provide to other users through the Application.
- Information you provide for customer service (e.g., email, country information, records and copies of your correspondence, etc.)
- Communications between you and our Application. (For example, we may send you Application-related emails. Note that you may not opt out of Application-related e-mails.)

Information We Collect from Your Use of the Application

When you use the Application, it may use technology to automatically collect:

In-app Purchase Information

When you make in-app purchases (e.g., Regular subscription, coins, etc.) in the Application, we will collect related order information, including IP address, unique device identification code, order number, transaction time, product category and product price. This information is collected when you provide us with your payment information to place an order through the Application.

Analytics Information

We use third-party analytics tools to help us measure traffic and usage trends for the Application. These tools collect information sent by your device to our Application, including the content and ads that you view or click, and other information that assists us in improving the Application. We collect and use this analytics information in the aggregate with analytics information from other users so that it cannot reasonably be used to identify any particular individual user.

Location Information

Upon your consent, we may collect different types of information about your general location (e.g., IP address, zip code) or more specific location information (e.g., precise location from your mobile GPS) through methods such as mobile “SDKs” which allows us to periodically determine your location, including your location relative to and within third-party merchant locations, and share such information with third parties, for purposes related to advertising (e.g., customized ads in the Application), analytics, attribution (e.g., measuring ad performance), and research.

You may prevent location information from being collected by this or other apps through your device settings (but this may affect the functionality of certain Application features). We may collect this information when the Application runs in the background on your device.

Behavioral Advertising Information

When you use the Application, we allow third-party companies to collect certain information. These companies may utilize cookies, pixels, or other similar technologies to collect and use non-personally identifiable information in order to provide advertisements about goods and services likely to be of greater interest to you.

Log Information

When you use the Application, we may automatically collect and store certain information in server logs. This may include:

- Information on how you interact with the Application.
- Your IP address.
- Device event information such as crashes, system activity, hardware settings, browser type, browser language, the date and time of your request and referral URL.

Metadata

Metadata refers to technical data associated with user content. Put simply, metadata is data that describes data. For example, metadata can describe the analysis results of facial features, the characters in photos, and other elements contained in photos, which are generated and tagged by the computer algorithm and artificial intelligence. When you use the Services, we will use photo metadata to provide you with certain features including precise “Facial Recognition,” “Key-Points Recognition,” “Region Segmentation,” “Content Tags” and other custom features based on a combination of these basic features. We may use your photo metadata to provide you with more suitable filters and better photo effects when the Application processes your photos; we may also make use of the metadata to serve up more contextually relevant products or services to you.

Device and Usage Information

We may collect device and usage information such as:

- Precise geolocation data pertaining to users’ devices (only upon your consent), which may be expressed by latitude-longitude coordinates obtained through GPS tools, WiFi data, cell tower triangulation or other techniques (collectively, “Device Geolocation Data”) and linked to a device identifier, such IDFA for iOS devices or Android ID for Android devices.

- Mobile ad identifiers such as iOS Identifier for Advertising(IDFA) and Android Advertising ID(AAID)
- Other information about a user’s device, such as: device type (e.g., tablet, smartphone), operating system, IP address, network provider, mobile carrier, mobile browser type (e.g., Firefox, Chrome, Safari), other apps and SDKs installed on the device, timestamp, time zone, information about the speed, bearing, orientation, and altitude of a device, or other device-identifying information.
- Information about the possible relationships among different devices.
- Data about user activities (e.g., the pages you view, the time and duration of your activities in the App) that helps us determine how a user interacts with advertising or content, such as determining whether a user who viewed a particular advertisement ultimately purchased the advertised product or service.

We may collect this information when the Application runs in the background on your device.

Local Storage

- We may access metadata and other information associated with other files stored on your device. This may include, for example, photographs and contacts for the purpose of inviting friends to use the Application.

Third-Party Social Media Site.

- If you choose, you can log in to the Application through certain third-party social media sites. Any information that such a social media site provides to us will be governed by this Privacy Policy. This information includes nicknames and profile images.

Information Collection and Tracking Technologies

Cookies (or mobile cookies).

A cookie is a small file placed on your smartphone. It may be possible to refuse to accept mobile cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your smartphone. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our Application.

Web Beacons

Pages of the Application may contain small electronic files known as web beacons (also referred to as clear gifs, pixel tags, and single-pixel gifs) that permit the Company, for example, to count users who have visited those pages and for other related app statistics (for example, recording the popularity of certain app content and verifying system and server integrity).

3. HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

In addition to some of the specific uses of information we describe in this Privacy Policy, we may use information that we receive and the choices you make in your settings:

- To provide the functionality of the Application;
- To help us develop, deliver, test and improve the Application;
- To monitor metrics such as total number of visitors, traffic, and demographic patterns;
- To provide personalized content and information to you and others, which could include sending you promotional messages, marketing, advertising and other information that may be of interest to you;
- To diagnose or fix technology problems;
- To allow us to keep you posted on App's latest product announcements, application updates, and upcoming events;
- To provide customer support and respond to your inquiries and requests;
- To allow professionals to contact you through the Application (as further described below);
- To administer referral programs, rewards, surveys, sweepstakes, contests, or other promotional activities or events sponsored or managed by us or our third-party business partners;
- To find and prevent fraud;
- To resolve disputes, to protect the rights, property, or safety of our Application visitors, customers, or the public, and to enforce any legal terms that govern your use of the Application or our other services and products;
- To comply with our legal and regulatory obligations;
- For the performance of any contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract;
- In any other way we may describe when you provide the information;
- Where you have given consent; or
- For any other legitimate interest or those of a third party, including the third parties.

4. INFORMATION SHARING AND DISCLOSURE TO THIRD PARTIES

Third-Party Service Providers

We use a variety of third-party service providers to help us provide the Application including business analytics, marketing, and other services. These providers have limited access to your information, including in some instances User Content, to perform these tasks on our behalf and are contractually obligated to use it consistent with this Privacy Policy.

Third-Party Advertising Network

We may share or disclose non-personally identifiable information, aggregated, usage information, geolocation information or device-level information (such as anonymous usage data, platform types, number of clicks, location data, etc.) with unaffiliated partners and third parties (e.g., advertising networks) that wish to market products. You can control or disable the use of location services for the Application in the device's settings menu.

Professionals and Other Users

Any information that you provide to other users via the Application are shared and disclosed to them. By sending your information to other users, you acknowledge and agree that they may contact you via the Application.

Business Transfers and Affiliates

We may share your information with companies or organizations connected or affiliated with the Application. We may also transfer your information to an affiliate, a subsidiary or a third party in the event of any reorganization, merger, sale, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of our business, assets or stock, including, without limitation, in connection with any bankruptcy or similar proceeding.

5. YOUR CHOICES ABOUT YOUR INFORMATION

Account Information

You may update or correct information you have provided to us by going into the User Account settings screen within the Application. If you wish to deactivate your account, please delete the Application, but note that we may retain your information as required by law or for business purposes.

Promotional Communications

You may opt out of receiving promotional communications from us by following the instructions in those messages. If you opt out, please note that we may still send you Application-related communications, such as those about your account or our ongoing business relations.

Opting Out of Interest-Based Advertising Services

You may opt-out from any interest-based advertising by turning on “Limit Ad Tracking” in your device settings.

Control or Disable the Collection of Geolocation Information

You can control the collection of certain precise location information by changing the preferences on your mobile device (but certain services may lose functionality as a result).

Push Notifications

We may send push notifications to your device. You can deactivate these messages at any time by changing the notification settings within the Application or your device settings.

Profile information

You may view, update, or edit the information (profile picture, nickname, bio) that you have provided to the company in the application. If you no longer wish to use the service, you may withdraw from the service and delete your account.

If you need to delete your created content after deleting your account, please contact us with the content you wish to delete and the reason, and we will help you with the process after confirming your identity.

Deletion requests may be sent by creators themselves or through a legal representative. If the representative sends the request, the company may request the submission of a letter of attorney to confirm the legitimacy of the representative.

Deletion requests may be denied if the requesting person is not the creator themselves (or a legal representative) or if the content must be preserved according to the law (in our sole discretion).

6. HOW LONG WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION

The Company may process and retain your personal information for the period necessary to get consent from you or to accomplish the purpose of the task specified in the Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy.

If the period specified below expires, all information, including personal information, will be deleted.

-Profile information provided when signing up and using the service:
until deletion of the app's account.

-Records on the provision of goods or services:
until the supply of goods or services is completed, or the use of the service is terminated.

-Inquiries about the use of services:
until the troubleshooting is completed.

However, in any of the following events, the information may be stored until the relevant issues are resolved.

-At the time of account deletion:
in case of damage caused by stolen information, etc., up to the minimum period specified by the Company for recovery and victim protection (14 days after deletion of account).

7. CHILDREN'S PRIVACY

This Application is not intended for children under 13 years of age. We do not knowingly collect or solicit any information from anyone under the age of 13 or knowingly allow such persons to register for the Application. If you believe that we might have any information from or about a child under 13, please contact us.

8. SECURITY

The user's face data is a photo that the user chooses and uploads to the application for processing.

This data is sent by the mobile application to the server and used there during the process of replacing the face on the video. As soon as this process is completed, the user's face photo data is deleted from the server.

Personal data is not stored anywhere, is not cached, and is not transferred to third parties.

The result obtained in the form of a finished video file is also not stored anywhere, is not cached and is not transmitted to third parties.

The result can be uploaded by the user to the user's device and stored only there.

9. EXTERNAL LINKS

The Application may contain links to third-party sites or online services. We are not responsible for the practices of such third parties, whose information practices are subject to their own policies and procedures, not to this Privacy Policy.

10. CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We may modify or update this Privacy Policy from time to time, so please review it periodically. We may provide you additional forms or notice of modifications or updates as appropriate under the circumstances. Your continued use of the Application after any modification to this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such modification.
