

San Diego & Tijuana Mayors to Tout Strengths of Binational Economy

MAYOR FAULCONER, MAYOR GASTÉLUM & BUSINESS LEADERS TO REAFFIRM COMMITMENT TO REGIONAL COLLABORATION

San Diego – Following a meeting to reaffirm their commitments to binational collaboration, San Diego Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer and Tijuana Mayor Juan Manuel Gastélum will be joined by business leaders from both sides of the border to highlight the importance of the megaregion's strong economic and cultural ties.

The cities of San Diego and Tijuana have worked together in recent years to collaborate in the areas of economic development, border infrastructure, environmental stewardship and public safety.

WHAT: News conference

WHO: San Diego Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer
Tijuana Mayor Juan Manuel Gastélum
Jerry Sanders, San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce President & CEO
Nikia Clarke, World Trade Center San Diego Executive Director
Humberto Jaramillo, Tijuana Business Development Council President
David Moreno, City of Tijuana Secretary of Economic Development

WHEN: Monday, February 6, 2017, 11 a.m.

WHERE: Mayor's Office
202 C Street, 11th floor
San Diego, CA 92101