Still stuck? Your business refuses to grow,no matter how hard you push.Is scaling even possible for you,You keep fighting but something invisible is choking your business.

What if I told you, I have the perfect solution for this?

You may think right now:

"I WANT TO KNOW THE WORKING AND MAKING OF A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS WITHOUT BUSTING MY BRAIN CELLS INTO SMITHEREENS."

You might think "Maybe it's one of my staff?" Or

"someone is out there to get me?"Or Even "maybe it's just me? Am I being paranoid?"

But it is you.

It's your mindset getting in the way.

I get it how it feels, But you need to fix it right now before you are drowning in bank loans, it doesn't take long for a business to collapse these days (i know because i was on the verge of getting destroyed lol)

Right now you're focused on fluff, you even started in this area because of how people are reaping the flashy rewards.

You are obsessed with the vanity metrics

Like

>to capture the audience's interest through your ads.

>how many people click on your ad.

> how many people actually bought your product/services by clicking on the ad.

>Views, likes, impressions.

What matters are these three cornerstones the reason that my business is thriving these days

>CAC : Cost of Acquisition

>LTV : Lifetime Value

>30 day Cash

(if your just here for timepass or for a show then get out of here lmao this for the real ones only 🙌)

I have laid out these points on my youtube.

Focus on the metrics that actually give a shit about your business.
